A Fall in Watches.

"Do you see this old watch?" said a watchmaker to a reporter for the Pittsburgh Dispatch. He held up an article that looked more like a mantel clock, and proceeded to open it up. By some twist of the thumb nail that only a watchmaker knows, he opened the outer case and it looked much like the shell of a cocoanut. The interior portion resembled the kernel. The thumb nail got to work again and the glass lid was raised. Again the thumb nail acted, and the works were turned out on a hinge, and they looked big and coarse enough to run a rolling mill.

"That watch doesn't look as though it was worth much," continued the watchmaker, "and yet its owner, who was in here a few moments ago, said he must have it fixed at any price. I found a couple of pivots broken, several teeth bent, and other damages. I told him it would cost $4. 'Fix it up,' he said, 'I don't care if it cost $10 to fix it. That watch belongs to my father. He has had it for many years, long before I was born. I don't think it could keep time enough for a pawnbroker, yet he wants it fixed and it must be done."

"Now," continued the watchmaker, "that is a very old style of watch. He could buy a far better one for the price he would have to pay for repairing it, and one that would be much more suitable, too. It is a burden to carry such a watch. But men liked them when they plowed, hammered around trees, fell into rivers, etc. This old watch survives such mishaps, though it doesn't keep decent time. It can't. Its machinery is too rough and too old to keep good time.

"Yes, there has been a great change in the style of watches. Years ago big watches, with all the flowering that could be got on the cases, were the style. Then came the opposite, and plain watches were the demand. The lady's wach came, a neat, delicate little thing, and the men thought the little watches were the ne plus ultra. And the jewlers began to bedeck the cases with pearls and other stones, and the articles brought big prices. After a time the neat silver watch began to get its hooks in, and it was all the rage.

"Prices for watches have fallen remarkably in the last ten years. I remember when people paid $250 and $300 for a hunting-case gold watch that you can get for $50 or $60, and sometimes for less. The change in price is due to the fact that the makers, after a time, found they could make cases much cheaper than they had been doing. The works were made much cheaper by the use of machinery, and of course the price fell, being helped along by competition."

Cheap Excursions

To Spring Fountain Park and Lake Side Park, Warsaw, are now in order. Private picnic parties and families in parties of ten or more can now procure cheap excursion tickets to those delightful resorts, located on the borders of Pike and Eagle lakes. Call on or address R. B. Rossington, ticket agent, or Frank M. Caldwell, district passenger agent, Pennsylvania depot, Fort Wayne, Ind.

Attention is called to the new express train for Chicago and intermediate points, leaving Fort Wayne at 6:30 a. m. and returning at 10:50 p. m.

HE WANTS IT,

But if Mr. Blaine Succeeds in Knocking the Persimmons From the Presidential Tree Sherman will Support Him.

BUFFALO, Aug. 2.—Recently the Express, of this city, printed some reminiscences of the Hon. A. N. Cole, who claims to have been the father of the republican party, and John Sherman wrote this decidedly pertinent letter to Mr. Cole:

"I have read with deep interest what is said in a number of July 10 in reference to Blanie's opinion of myself. It is quite true, as Mr. Blaine says that he and I had been on intimate terms always and we have always had the highest regard for each other. We were both presented as candidates in 1880. But then some of Mr. Blaine's friends in Ohio made the fatal mistake of dividing the Ohio delegation and refused to vote for me but voted for Blaine. This not only defeated me, but prevented the concentration of the Ohio delegation in favor of Blaine on the night before the last day of the convention, when he said he hoped the Ohio delegation would unite upon me, and if so my nomination would follow as a matter, of course. But so much feeling had been caused by the division that it was found impossible and was only reconciled by the nomination of General Garfield. It may be that the same division will produce a like result in the approaching canvass. I certainly have no objection to the nomination of Mr. Blaine and if he is nominated I will do what I did in 1880—do all I can to secure his election. He is more injured than benefitted by the activity of his friends in making divisions in the republican states."

OLIVER H. MORGAN

Sends Three Bullets Into His Breast and is Discovered Dead Near His Father's House—a Victim of Insomnia.

Oliver H. Morgan killed himself early this morning on the premises surrounding his father's residence, at the corner of East Washington and Clinton streets

Oliver Morgan was approaching his thirty-second year and has lived in the city since childhood. He has long been engaged as a clerk in the hardware store of Morgan & Beach, his father being the senior partner, as well as school trustee, a director in the Old New National bank and a gentleman whom the people have often honored.

His son, the unfortunate victim of this sketch, was widely known and had his friends. When a mere lad R. G. McNiece rebuked in his paper, the Gazette, some youthful indiscretions of young Morgan and the remorse of that day lingered with him, yet some people look lightly on a newspaper paragraph.

He was recluse and meditative. The indulgencies of his father and the pleasant surroundings of his home would not cheer his life. From remorse came restlessness, then insomnia, and of late the young man slept a troublous sleep. Last night he was down street, but nothing unusual was noted about his manner. He went home later and retired, it was supposed, for the night. There was no rest for him, and as the bed evidenced this morning, he rolled and tossed on it. He heard the clocks put time behind them without relief or peace of mind and at midnight he dressed himself, secured his revolver and proceeding to the yard in the rear of his home he sent three bullets into the region of his heart.

At that hour the household heard something like the muffled report of pistol shots, but dreamt not that they meant such grief to them.

Mr. John Mohr, who resides just across the street, heard the shooting, but the report seemed to come from a distance off. He arose, however, listened and heard low moaning sounds for a moment or two and then all was still. He could not locate the pistol shots and the murmurs of agony together, so he banished the matter from his mind, and it was then that the soul of the sufferer went on its flight into eternity.

This morning at 5 o'clock, when the servants went into the yard they were horrified to find young Morgan lying dead near the door steps, with a pistol in his hand and blood oozing from the wounds in his left breast.

His father and other members of the family hastened to the scene of so sad a suicide and carried the body into the house, where Mr. J. C. Peltier embalmed it preparatory for burial.

Mr. Morgan is stricken with grief at the untimely death of his son, to whom he was so indulgent, and while Oliver H. Morgan had his faults, his failings and his follies, he had the big heart of his father, and people who knew him best liked him most.

THE SENTINEL extends to the family its sympathy in this hour of their grief.

THE INQUEST.

Dr. J. M. Dinnen viewed the remains this morning and pronounced death from suicide. He located one bullet directly through young Morgan's heart and the hour of the shooting 12:15 p. m.

Mr. Morgan's funeral will occur Thursday morning at 8:30 o'clock. Services at the First Presbyterian church.

An Earthquake.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—Dispatches from Jacksonville, Centralia and Jonesville this morning indicate that an earthquake occurred at these points. It was noted at Nashville, Tenn., St. Louis, Mo., and Evansville, Ind. It was general throughout southern and central Illinois. At Jacksonville the vibrations seemed from east to west, but at Jonesboro from north to south. At the latter place a rumbling noise was heard of sufficient force to shake windows in the frames.

FRED STEIG CAPTURED.

A Clever Piece of Work, the Officer Being Compelled to Steal His Man Away.

Yesterday THE SENTINEL noted briefly that Fred Steig, alias Webber, who escaped from the Cincinnati jail about four weeks since, was arrested in the country five miles north of this city yesterday by Detective Robert Cunningham, of Cincinnati. The detective was assisted by Deputy Sheriff Tom Wilkinson. The tracking of Steig was a good piece of detective work as has ever occurred in this state. Two officers from Cincinnati spent a week here looking for him, and all that time he was employed at the Bass Machine works as a laborer and was constantly outside working in the foundry yards. Cunningham found that a trunk was to be shipped him at Fort Wayne. He came ahead of the trunk and learned that it was to be sent to the paper-mills on the St. Joe river, five miles north of the city to Fred Webber. Detective Cunningham had never seen his man, but, going there, he impersonated an expressman, and called out that he had a trunk for a man named Webber. Webber at once answered that it was his. Before he was aware of it Cunningham had the handcuffs on him, and had thrown him into a buggy and was on his way to Fort Wayne. On arriving in this city Steig employed an attorney, who at once got out a writ of habeas corpus

Sheriff Schott, of Cincinnati, came here last night, forced his prisoner into a buggy and with Cunningham and Wilkinson drove Steig to the Ohio state line out of the reach of Hoosier courts.

Steig was a "trusty" about the Cincinnati jail. He eloped with Mattie Kiser, who was held as a witness, and came with her to this city where she left him.

FATHER O'REILLY,

The Distinguished Valparaiso Priest, Stricken With Paralysis.

Telegrams last night to Rt. Rev. Bishop Dwenger, from Valparaiso, brought the startling information that Father O'Reilly was stricken with paralysis. Vicar General Brammer and Father O'Leary left on the midnight train for Valparaiso. Father Brammer telegraphed the bishop this morning that the invalid was unconscious. Father O'Reilly is well known and has many friends in Fort Wayne who will grieve at this news and pray for his recovery. Father O'Reilly was ordained by Bishop Luers December 22, 1862, and has been at Valparaiso ever since.

FOREIGN NEWS.

PARIS, Aug. 2.—The seconds of ex-Premier Ferry and those of General Boulanger have decided that a duel is necessary.

General Boulanger's seconds publish the report of what they say transpired at the conference between them and the seconds of M. Ferry, which is to the effect that Boulanger made two propositions as to the exchange of shots and distance, while Ferry's seconds insisted on twenty-five paces with single exchange shots, the fire to be opened at the word of command. Thereupon, as the offended party has a right to dictate the conditions of the duel, without being obliged to submit to the terms dictated by his adversaries seconds, General Boulanger's seconds withdrew from the affair.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—The government has decided to subsidize the Canadian Pacific road for the transportation of the trans-Pacific mails.

Killed His Young Wife.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Mrs. Lillie Schlimmer, a fifteen-year-old wife, was murdered in cold blood by her youthful husband, Joseph, in Jersey City, yesterday afternoon. The couple were married without the consent of the girl's parents, and on account of her age it was agreed they should not live together for two years. It is said young Schlimmer had been endeavoring to persuade the girl to leave the parental roof, but she refused. This afternoon she was walking down Erie street with her mother and grandmother. Schlimmer walked up to her and placing a pistol at her breast, fired. She fell to the sidewalk and died. Schlimmer stopped to tell the grandmother that she was responsible for the tragedy and then fled.

At Pike's Peak Summit.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Aug. 2.—Some fifty persons, representing almost every state in the union, ascended Pike's Peak yesterday and when on the top the party organized. The meeting appointed S. J. Fisher, of St. Louis; Judge Kerr, of Pueblo, Col., and Kate P. Hampton, of South Carolina, a committee to draft resolutions inviting President Cleveland, during his western visit, to Colorado Springs.

In Ninety Days.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—McGarigle is still at Sarnia, where he expects to be joined by his family in a day or two. He still boasts that he will be back in Chicago "a free man" within ninety days.

THE BOY MURDERER.

John Beall, Who Shot His Mother and Then Nearly Beheaded Her With an Ax, Makes a Confession.

EATON, Ohio, Aug. 2.—John Beall, thirteen years old, who has been in jail for six weeks on the charge of killing his mother, has made a confession to the prosecuting attorney, sheriff and an ex-sheriff It was not written do n and the persons are secretive about the details.

On June 13, this boy was at home alone with his mother at the farm house and about 4 o'clock he alarmed the neighbors by saying that three tramps had killed his mother and that he was asleep and awakened in time to see them leaving with some money and a watch. The watch has since been found in a vault, where the boy admits he threw it. The boy had shot his mother twice and then nearly beheaded her with an ax. No motive for the crime can be assigned, except that he was angry at what seemed to him to be an evidence of favoritism shown to his sister by his mother on the day of the murder. He expected to go to Eaton with his mother to get a suit of clothes, but instead his father took his sister to town and thus he was left at home with his mother.

A Bad Fight.

CAIRO, Ill., Aug. 2.—The steamer Gondola took a negro excursion, coming down the Mississippi Sunday, at Hickman, Ky. Several whites got aboard, who got into a quarrel with a negro on the way down. When the boat returned to Hickman an affair broke out with a fight with knives and pistols, in which twenty-five or thirty men were involved, black and white. Five are wounded, more or less seriously, and one died yesterday from the effects of wounds and others are in a precarious state.

A Triple Tragedy.

CAMDEN, N J., Aug. 2.—A more horrible tragedy never occured in this city than that which occured in South Camden a few minutes before 6 o'clock last evening, when Wm. Wiltshite, 52 years of age, and keeper of an oyster saloon, shot his wife Ella, aged 47, deliberately murdered Justice of the Peace Wm. S. Darr (colored), and then finished the work of destruction by sending a bullet through his own brain, dying almost instantly.

Catholic Convention.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—An invitation has been issued to all the German-American catholics to meet at Chicago on September the sixth. The objects of the convention is the consideration of the differences existing between the German and Irish Catholics and to discuss the labor problem.

Should Have Shot Himself First.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Aug. 2.—George Whittstein, in a fit of jealousy, yesterday shot his wife three times and then shot himself. He died in fifteen minutes and his wife's wounds are fatal. He was seventy and she was thirty years of age.

Mrs. Cleveland in Massachusetts.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 2.—Mrs. Grover Cleveland and her mother and aunt arrived at Marion at 11 o'clock this morning. They will be the guests of General A. W. Greeley who has a summer residence here.

He Gets Two Years.

CHICAGO, Aug 2.—Judge Shepard denied a new trial to Edward S McDonald and W. J. McGarigle, charged with conspiracy, and sentenced McDonald to a term of two years in the penitentiary.

A Murder Case.

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio, Aug. 2.—The jury in the celebrated case of Alf McCoy, charged with the murder of Dr. Northrup, returned a verdict of murder in the second degree.

IN THE BUSY WORLD.

Personal Points and Pithy Paragraphs Picked up Around the Shops and Railroads of the City.

Three new men went to work in the Wabash shops this morning.

The Olds' wheel works shipped two car loads of wheels north this morning.

John Sullivan, of the Pittsburg boiler shops, returned from Richmond yesterday.

Christ Eberwine, the machinist in the Bass works who has been sick for some time, is improving.

Thomas Sheppard, one of the oldest employes in the Pittsburg boiler shops, is on the sick list.

Jacob Strasser, a machinist in the Bass foundry, left to-day for Niagara Falls on a summer tour.

Engineer A. J. Young, of the Nickel Plate, left yesterday, with his family for a trip through the south.

Oscar Brooks, the genial clerk at Olds' wagon works, left this morning for a ten days trip of the big lakes.

F. Fowler, a Pittsburg machinist, left for Chicago to-day and from thence will make a tour of the lakes for his health.

Master Mechanic F. D. Cassanave has issued an order to each of the formen of the Pittsburg shops to supply the employes with oat-meal water, and the boys are now reveling in that healthy and delightful luxury.

John Sullivan, a boiler maker in the Pittsburg shops, was taken sick yesterday an hour after he had gone to work and is still detained at his home.

Robert Harrison, the popular general foreman of the Pittsburg machine shops, is a lover of the beautiful and has a bouquet of roses on his desk almost every day.

Morris Lee, a Pittsburg machinist, with his wife and family, are now cosily enscolsed under canvass at Eagle Lake, Warsaw, where they will remain for several weeks.

James Foster, an apprentice in the Pittsburg machine shops, has been granted a leave of absence and will rusticate for a few weeks at Nanituck lake, near Plymouth.

Road Supervisor Ed Murphy, of the Nickel Plate, still experiences difficulty in obtaining men to work on the sidings. A large gang is employed lowering the grade at Peabody, a few miles west of the city.

The mother of Charles and George Miller, of the Bass works, died last evening at her home, and the two young men have the sympathy of their fellow employes in the Bass foundry in their sad affliction.

Joe Dwenger, the apprentice in the Bass works, is cultivating his voice, but his beautiful melodies are not appreciated by the machinists. He sings at his best when on his way Sunday nights to see his best girl, and on such occasions as these the boys are willing to let him sing as loud and as long as he wants to.

Joseph Cairns, the veteran machinist in the Pittsburg shops, who has been rusticating for the past month in and about Wichita, Kan., has returned and resumed work in the shop to-day. He can a tale to you unfold respecting jack rabbits, pole-her-bares, and she-mois-goits that would entertain a group for an evening.

Theodore Weichman, a machinist in the Bass foundry, is now seriously contemplating matrimony. He is considerably bothered about it, because there are seven girls who divide his heart's affection, but his attentions seem to have centered on an east end girl and wedding bells may be heard in that vicinity before long.

An employe of the Pittsburg machine shops found a letter this morning on Lafayette street, between Montgomery and Lewis, bearing the following inscription: "Ferdinand Krugler, No. 2123 Third street, Dayton, Ohio." Not knowing who the sender was he mailed it and the person who lost the letter will know by this that his lost letter will undoubtedly reach its destination.

The committee from the Pittsburg railroad shops, consisting of Messrs. Judy, Graham and Sloan, in reference to the contemplated excursion to Warsaw, waited upon Assistant Master Mechanic Potter yesterday and he has written to Superintendent Law in regard to the matter. Superintendent Law is out of the city at present, but the boys think that he will grant them their petition and that their excursion is a sure thing.

"Some of the roads might tell some facts against their patrons which would surprise a great many people," said a prominent railroad official to the reporter this morning. "You would be surprised to find to what contemptible smallness some men will descend to beat a railroad company. Here is an instance: There were a number of merchants who were in the habit of buying silverware and having it shipped as 'nuts and bolts.' At one time some of these people invented a nice little scheme for beating the railroads. They would buy a bill of goods in New York, and among the bill would be two or three pieces of silk. They would direct that the silk be kept out of the box in which the other goods were packed, and retained until directions for shipping were forwarded. But the silk was to be charged in the invoice. They would claim when the box was opened that the silk had been abstracted, and would produce the invoice and substantiate their claim. They would swear to the invoice, too. This thing went on until the company grew suspicious, because one or two men would always be short. We sent a man on to the consigner and discovered how the neat little game was worked. There are a dozen other similar schemes for defrauding the railroads, but we get onto them more quickly than we used to do."

The Dead of a Month.

Dr. S. C. Metcalf makes the following mortuary report commencing July 1 and ending July 31, 1887: Alcoholism, 2; asphexiar, 1; Bright's disease, 3; bronchitis, 1; consumption, 10; cholera infantum, 18; cancer, 1; convulsions, 1; exhaustion, 7; hemorrhage, inflammation stomach, 1 malarial fever, 1; marasmus, 1; measles, 2; meningitis, 7; old age, 2; paralysis, 2; premature birth, 4; rheumatic fever, 1; railroad accident, 2; heat, 1; total, 70. Mr. J. G. Grimme & Sons, the tailors, will occupy the alley building in the Schmidt block as soon as it is fixed up. Mrs. Kratsch will move into the building they vacate next to Hover's art gallery.

Encourage our base ball club by witnessing the contest between them and the Columbia City to-morrow.

WITH HER CHILD

Mrs. W. H. Lisle Meets Death in Attempting to Jump from a Train at Fort Edwards, N. Y.

SARATOGA, Aug. 2.—Mrs. W. H. Lisle, of Lansingburg, with her two small children, left on the 6:25 tasin last evening for Glens Falls. At Fort Edward, about an hour later, the lady and one of the children received such injuries that they died in a few moments afterwards. The train stopped in Fort Edward and something occurred to excite the lady and she attempted to jump from the coach to the platform. She threw one of her children first, then sprang after it with the other child. She fell underneath the cars and received injuries which resulted in her death and that of her child. The other child was hurled out from under the moving car just ahead of the wheels by engineer Martin.

Labor Troubles Settled.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 2.—The Green glass manufacturers and workmen yesterday made an amicable settlement of the wage question and the working rules for the ensuing "blast" or year. The wages scale is unchanged. It was decided to allow one apprentice to every fifteen journeymen.

The best 5c cigar is the F. & S.

THE Amoy correspondent of the Hong Hong Daily Press tells the following story: This time the scene of disaster is a few miles farther away from Poh Sal, at the foot of a mountain called "Lam Thal Boo," in the Kang bay district. A few days ago four of the villagers, deserving a tiger carrying away a goat from the neighboring field, followed in his pursuit with arms. The tiger took refuge in a cave at the foot of the mountain, and the villagers, thinking there was no other means of egress but the one through which he had entered, covered it up with brambles, thorns, and other wild herbage at hand. They then stationed one of their number on a rock overhanging the cave, and returned to the village to procure additional assistance. In the meantime the brute found some other loophole of escape from his confinement, and, suddenly confronting the man on the rock, tore him to pieces, and was nearly devouring him when his companions appeared on the scene. At the fourteenth shot the ferocious monster was brought down, and the half-devoured corpse of the ill-starred villager rescued from his claws. This district of Kang bay is infested with tigers, and it affords a good field for the so-called hunters who wish for a better object for their skill than the innocent water ducks and birds of the like species.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 2, 1887.

AN enterprising woman is about to establish in London "A School for Wives." The curriculum includes: "Instruction in cookery, dress-making, physiology, book-keeping, elocution, and debating." The latter quality, desirable in parliamentary proceedings, may be considered a superfluity in family circles. Debate is too closely associated with divorce to satisfy some exacting people.

THE Western Penitentiary of Pennsylvania can make cocoa mats so cheaply, as a specialty, that outside manufacturers have about abandoned the market. Now, however, by the New York law just passed, substantial protection is given the trade by the formidable tag which the goods must wear in that State, "Convict Made, 1887, Western Penitentiary of Pennsylvania."

THERE is a place in New York where the finest of wedding trousseaus, even down to the shoes, stockings, and everything else, may be hired for a night. When asked by friends after the marriage why they do not wear the dresses they tell them that they never intend to wear them after the first night. Men are also rigged up in wedding finery for $2. The ladies pay from $7 to $40 for their outfits.

THE only member of the late Mr. Greeley's family now living is his daughter, Miss Gabrielle M. Greeley, who four years ago bought her father's house and farm of eighty-two acres at Chappaqua, N. Y., for $10,000, and now resides there in company with Mrs. Chamberlain and Miss Chamberlain. The three children of Miss Greeley's dead sister, Mrs. Nicholas Smith, are living at Shelbyville, Ky.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND writes few letters and dictates none. His public papers he writes with his own hand. He uses a stub pen and a cork penholder, and in reading or writing wears spectacles with a black steel frame. He shaves himself every morning. He usually wears a black Prince Albert coat and black trousers, except in summer, when he wears a blue-flannel or serge suit with sack coat. He wears a 7¼ hat.

THE birthplace of beer is Egypt. A papyrus has been discovered on which a father reproaches his son for lounging about in taverns and drinking too much beer. From the Egyptians the art of brewing beer descended to the Ethiopians. While the Romans despised beer, the Germans of the north of Europe fully appreciated its good qualities. At present the yearly production throughout the world amounts to 140,000,000 hectoliters, England taking the lead with 48,000,000.

A NOTED rebel chief in Tonquin was recently captured and executed. After he was taken, to the questions put to him the prisoner would give no answer, and as soon as he was captured he tried to commit suicide by tearing open his stomach with his nails, biting his tongue, scratching his eyes out, and mutilating himself in still more horrible ways. He had very great influence with the literati. At his last examination he obtained first place, and he was President of the important association of Thau-ban.

THE Russian Administration of Prisons has just issued its report for 1885. January 1, 1885, there were 94,488 persons incarcerated throughout the Empire. In the course of a year 703,254 entered and 697,769 individuals were liberated, leaving a residue of 99,973 still in prison. Women formed about 8 per cent. of the convicted. Notwithstanding a certain amelioration of sanitary appliances in the jails, the rate of mortality remained stationary. Of the 88,002 prisoners who were treated in hospital, there were 2,189 men, 246 women, and 546 children. In this respect the Island of Saghalien stood in the worst position, its sick list showing a total of 66 per cent. on the year, but the number of deaths there is not given. Diseases arising from humidity, insufficient ventilation, and defective sanitary arrangements are the chief scourges of the state prisons. Among the 4,029 persons who passed through the prisons of St. Petersburg, 2,675 were accused of theft, 139 of political offenses, one of bigamy, and one of apostasy. The largest number of offenders belonged to the artisan class; not one is specified as a peasant. The expenses of the penitentiary service in the whole empire amounted to 11,798,614 rubles, being a diminution of 521,239 rubles upon the expenditure of the preceding year. This economy was partially effected by reducing the cost of the equipment of the prisoners. There was a falling off in the receipts derived from the products of the prisoners' industry from 133,750 rubles in 1884 to 103,536 rubles in 1885. Moreover, the coal-mining company of Saghalien, which is supplied with convict labor, paid to the State 31,456 rubles for the rights conceded to it.

THE BUSINESS MEN

Handle The Natural Gas and Water Questions, and Invite President Cleveland to Fort Wayne.

There was an important meeting of the Business Men's exchange last night, and questions of public importance were discussed in a lively way.

The following communication was received from Hon. R. C. Bell:

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Aug. 1, 1887.

To the Business Men's Exchange of Fort Wayne, Ind.:

GENTLEMEN—We have been requested to submit to your body a proposition, relative to furnishing natural gas for supplying Fort Wayne.

We control a gas field lying within from thirty-seven (37) to fifty (50) miles of this city, containing a most abundant supply of gas of the best quality.

If a company shall be formed to pipe gas to Fort Wayne from this field, with a stock capital of $500,000 paid up, we will put down in this territory, at our own expense, wells sufficient to furnish thirty million (30,000,000) feet of gas per day (which quantity we deem amply sufficient to supply all the wants of the city), convey to such company our leases for the territory where the wells are situated; we will also furnish the right of way for pipes from the wells to the corporate limits of the city; the company to lay the necessary pipes and we will take in payment thereof ten thousand ($10,000) dollars in money and one hundred thousand ($100,000) dollars in the capital stock of such company. This proposition shall remain open for acceptance for the next sixty (60) days only.

W. W. WORTHINGTON,
R. C. Bell.

This proposition was referred to a committee of five, consisting of Messrs. White, Winch, Seavy, Beach and Moynihan, to report at the next meeting, if possible, upon the feasibility of organizing such a company as mentioned. The committee was also instructed to correspond with other neighboring natural gas companies, with the view of getting propositions from them.

J. B. Monning then submitted the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

FORT WAYNE, Ind., August 1, 1887.

Inasmuch as President Cleveland has accepted an invitation to visit St. Louis this fall, and it being probable that his route will lead through Fort Wayne; therefore,

Resolved, That the Business Men's exchange of Fort Wayne tender President Cleveland the hospitality of the city, and invite him to honor Fort Wayne with a visit, if only for a few hours; and be it further

Resolved, That the exchange extend to the president of the United States such invitation signed by all members of the exchange and citizens of Fort Wayne as soon as expedient.

JOHN B. MONNING.

A committee on invitation consisting of Messrs. Muhler, McCulloch, Monning, Lumbard, Graffe, Fox and Paul was appointed to prepare the invitation and secure the names of citizens as contemplated by the resolution.

The following resolution was then presented and adopted:

Whereas, The question of a water supply is uppermost in the minds of the people of Fort Wayne and now before the council for final solution; and

Whereas, The welfare of over 35,000 inhabitants and the safety of property demand immediate action; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Business Men's exchange (embracing in its membership some of the heaviest tax-payers in the city) believes the St. Joe river to be the most available, purest and best natural source of water supply touching Fort Wayne.

And the exchange further recognizes that the feeder canal not only reaches and controls the head waters of that great stream, but has ready facilities to convey the entire flow into the heart of the city; therefore,

It appears to the exchange that the purchase of the canal is the most desirable, economical and profitable investment the city can make, embracing as it does a supply, water power and lake possibilities; therefore,

The exchange most respectfully and very earnestly urges the council to give the proposition now before them favorable consideration and bring about the desired result, that the people of Fort Wayne may forever enjoy a cheap, wholesome and perpetual water supply.

The resolution was adopted, and a committee consisting of Hon. J. B. White, Fred Beach, George W. Seavy, A. S. Lanferty, J. C. Peters and P. A. Randall was named to present the matter to the city council to-night.

Horn-Books.

One of the rarest, and certainly one of the most interesting books in the library of the British Museum, is what our ancestors called a "horn-book." It was, in fact, their primer, the ordinary means by which they began their education; and down to the reign of George II. must have been very common, for we see by an entry in the account-book of the Archer family that one was sold in 1729 for twopence. At present there is no book more difficult to obtain. The one in the British Museum was found a quarter of a century ago in a deep closet built in the thick walls of an old farmhouse in Derbyshire. It is said a laborer engaged in pulling down the walls of the ancient house recognized it as that from which his father had been taught to read. Upon the back is a picture of Charles I. on horseback, giving some approximation to its date. It is a single leaf, containing upon the front side the alphabet, large and small, in old English and Roman letters, ten short columns of monosyllables founded on the vowels, and the Lord's Prayer; all set in a frame of oak, now black with age, and protected by a slice of transparent horn, hence the name horn-book.

There is a handle by which to hold it, and in the handle a hole for a string, so it could hang from the girdle. A picture of 1720 represents a child running in leading strings with a horn-book tied to her side. A cheaper kind of horn-book had the leaf of printed paper pasted on the horn, and perhaps the greater number were made in this way. If so, it is not singular that they should be scarce, for they would be very easily destroyed. Shenstone writes in 1742 of

"Books of stature small,
While with pellucid horn secured all
To save from fingers wet the letters fair."

The alphabet upon the horn-books was always headed by a cross, and so frequently called Christ Cross Row, or in common speech, the Criss Cross Row, this being the title under which a very worn specimen is catalogued at Oxford.

Distress After Eating.

This result of indigestion will no longer be experienced if Simmons Liver Regulator is taken after each meal. It is such a good digester, and so mild and pleasant in its effect that it is used by many, after a hearty meal, to insure good digestion. The regulator does not nauseate or irritate the stomach, but corrects acidity, dispels foul gases, allays irritation, and assists the stomach in its digestion.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. Wrong

To imagine that the treatment of Constipation consists merely in unloading the bowels. The medicine must not only act as a purgative, but be a tonic as well, and not produce after its use greater costiveness. This is what Simmons Liver Regulator always does.

"As a general family remedy for Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., I hardly ever use anything else, and have never been disappointed in the effect produced; it seems to be almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels."—W. J. McELROY, Macon, Ga.

Believe us, when we tell you that most of the despondent feeling (the blues) is the effect of a Torpid Liver, Indigestion, Weakness of Stomach, and Nervousness. A dose of Simmons Liver Regulator invariably relieves, cures and prevents a re-occurrence.

"I find Simmons Liver Regulator, very safe, harmless and valuable as a family medicine, and have used it for any disorder of the system and have found it to act like a charm, and I believe that if it was used in time, it would prove a great preventive of sickness. I have often recommended it to my friends, and shall continue to do so.—Rev. JAMES. M. ROLLINS, Fairfield, Va.

Simmons Liver Regulator is given with safety and with the happiest results, in almost any ailment, to the most delicate infant as well as to the adult. For all diseases in which a laxative, alterative, or purgative is needed, it will give the most perfect satisfaction. It is the cheapest, purest and best Family Medicine in the world.

Central American Republics.

There is a strong tendency in our day, among the more enlightened nations, not only to approach toward those republican institutions which the people of the United States enjoy, but to adopt some form of union; or federation, in more or less respects resembling our own.

The two great empires of Central Europe — Germany and Austria-Hungary—have been converted, within the past twenty-five years, into federal unions, in which each component State manages its local affairs, while the common interests and defence of the States are managed by the Central Government.

There is, moreover, an active and growing movement to form the kingdoms and colonies of the British Empire into a vast federation, each to have its own local legislature to make local laws and regulations, and the Imperial Parliament to deal with objects common to all.

A somewhat similar plan is proposed to be carried out by the five turbulent little Central American republics, which lie close together between Mexico and the Isthmus of Panama. These States constituted the Central American Federation from 1823, just after the Spanish rule had been thrown off, until 1839, when they flew into fragments, and set up, each for itself, an independent government.

One or two attempts have been made since then to re-unite these little republics. The last was that of Barrios, who was for many years Dictator of Guatemala, and who lost his life in the attempt. But now a renewed effort, peaceable in its nature, has been made, and a treaty has already been accepted, forming a more intimate tie between these republics than has existed since 1839.

This treaty provides that "perpetual peace shall exist between the republics; that all differences shall be arranged; and that, in the event of this proving impossible, such differences shall be submitted to arbitration."

The example of greater and more enlightened nations has thus had a good influence upon these little, jealous, and hitherto quarrelsome States, which have been from time to time domineered over by military dictators, and can only take rank, at best, as semi-civilized communities.

The five States, ranged along the coast of the Pacific and the Carribean Sea, from north to south, are Guatemala, Honduras, Salvador, Nicaragua, and Costa Rica.

All are nominally republican and their governments are modelled to some extent upon that of the United States. Each has a president and a legislative body of one or two chambers.

Of the five republics, Guatemala is the largest and the most thriving, its area nearly fifty thousand square miles. Next in population is Salvador, with six hundred and thirty thousand, though its area is much the smallest of all.

These little States have had "history" in abundance. They have often been afflicted with civil wars, and have also been often aroused, by jealousies, to conflicts with each other. They have been too prone to imitate, in these respects, their larger neighbor, Mexico.

It may be that now that they see the far greater blessings of concord and mutual co-operation, a brighter era is in store for them. They are so nearly our own neighbors, and they have so many industrial interests in common with us, that our cordial good wishes will attend their effort to put an end to the period of strife, and to dwell together in amity.

In order to attain this end, it is altogether probable that the five-republics will soon adopt the federative form, leaving each one still independent in dealing with its own affairs, and establishing a common executive and congress for purposes of mutual defence and well-being. Such a result will certainly tend to ensure greater liberty and prosperity to each and all of them. —Youth's Companion.

That Rarest of Combinations.

True delicacy of flavor with true efficacy of action, has been attained in the famous California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs. Its pleasant taste and beneficial effects have rendered it immensely popular. Large bottles for sale by Thieme and Gross.

Six years ago there were 600 miles of railroad in Florida. To-day there are said to be about 2,000.

Delicate Children, Nursing

Mothers, overworked men and for all diseases where the tissues are wasting away from the inability to digest food, or from overwork; should take Scott's emulsion of pure cod liver oil with Hypophosphites. "I used the emulsion on a lady who was delicate. It put her in such good health and flesh, that I must say it is the best emulsion."—L. P. Waddell, M. D., Hugh's Mills S. C.

I have been for several years a sufferer from hay fever and severe head colds, and have tried other remedies in hope of getting relief but have found none that can campare with Ely's Cream Balm. I would not be without it for any consideration. It is simply wonderful in its effect upon the nasal organs. S. A. Burtt, Wilmington, N. C.

I can cheerfully recommend Ely's Cream Balm to the suffering public for hay fever and stoppage of the air passages. I have tried it and find it gives immediate relief.—J. E. Rector, 209 Rock Street, Little Rock, Ark.

Less Gospel and More Hoe.

"If there ain't a change in the religious world pretty soon, I'm going to throw down the Gospel and take up the grubbing hoe," remarked an old man yesterday. "I have rid a circuit of forty odd years, and I'm treated worse now than when I first began."

"What is your cause of complaint, parson?" asked a bystander.

"My recent cause is one what flakes all others," answered the circuit rider, wiping a drop of water from the end of his peaked nose with the sleeve of his brown jeans coat. "I have preached a good deal here in Little Rock, and until recently it had allers been my belief that if a man could pull through here, he could pull through anywhere, But I was blind wrong. Yesterday I went in the Gum Lick district, where I had an appointment to preach in the schoolhouse. When I got there I found old man Wiggles, a hardshell Baptist, had got in ahead of me. I went in without any ill-feeling, intending to wait until he got through, when I would muster my congregation and take the field. After a while he got through preaching, and announced that sacrament would be taken when the boy got back from the still house. 'My congregation uses whisky instead of wine,' he went on, 'and Arkansaw corn bread instead of your wheat fixens.' Just then the boy arrived and the old man took the cob stopper from the black chunk bottle and began to pour out the whisky. Now if there is anything that strikes me natural it is whisky, and thinking I could preach better after being warmed up a little, I went up to the table and reached out for the bottle, when the old man looked at me and said:

"'Ain't you a Methodist?'

"'Yes, sir.'

"'Don't you know that we don't allow the Methodists to commune with us? Do you take this place for a free lunch counter, eh? No, sir; if you are not a customer of the Lord you cannot eat and drink here.'

"'I've got a right to the table,' I said, 'and I'll help myself.'

"'Tech that bottle and I'll hit you.'

"I grabbed the bottle, and the old man struck me with a pone of corn bread and knocked me down. Then somebody kicked me, and all hands drug me out."

"You got into a nest of close communionists, did you?" asked the bystanders.

"Ruther like it. Why, them fellers would snatch a piece of bread from Jacob and tear the bosom outer Abraham's shirt. No, sir; until there is more freedom in church I sha'n't renew my connections. Where can a fellow get a two-pound hoe?"—Little Rock Gazette.

IT WON'T BAKE BREAD.—In other words, Hood's Sarsaparilla will not do impossibilities. Its proprietors tell plainly what it has done, submit proofs from sources of unquestioned reliability, and ask you frankly if you are suffering from any disease or affection caused or promoted by impure blood or low state of the system, to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. The experience of others is sufficient assurance that you will not be disappointed in the result.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferers at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving he child from pain, and the little cherub wakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

FITS: All fits stopped free by Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. No fits after first day's use. Marvelous cures. Treatise and $2.00 trial bottle free to Fit cases. Send to Dr. Kline, 931 Arch St. Phila. Pa.

The treatment of many thousands of cases of those chronic weaknesses and distressing ailments peculiar to females, at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., has afforded a vast experience in nicely adapting and thoroughly testing remedies for the cure of woman's peculiar maladies.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the outgrowth, or result, of this great and valuable experience. Thousands of testimonials, received from patients and from physicians who have tested it in the more aggravated and obstinate cases which had baffled their skill, prove it to be the most wonderful remedy ever devised for the relief and cure of suffering women. It is not recommended as a "cure-all," but as a most perfect Specific for woman's peculiar ailments.

As a powerful, invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system, and to the womb and its appendages in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine, "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, exhaustion, prostration, hysteria, spasms and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the womb. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a legitimate medicine, carefully compounded by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate organization. It is purely vegetable in its composition and perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system. For morning sickness, or nausea, from whatever cause arising, weak stomach, indigestion, dyspepsia and kindred symptoms, its use, in small doses, will prove very beneficial.

"Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of leucorrhea, excessive flowing, painful menstruation, unnatural suppressions, prolapsus, or falling of the womb, weak back, "female weakness," anteversion, retroversion, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration of the womb, inflammation, pain and tenderness in ovaries, accompanied with "internal heat."

As a regulator and promoter of functional action, at that critical period of change from girlhood to womanhood, "Favorite Prescription" is a perfectly safe remedial agent, and can produce only good results. It is equally efficacious and valuable in its effects when taken for those disorders and derangements incident to that later and most critical period, known as "The Change of Life."

"Favorite Prescription," when taken in connection with the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and small laxative doses of Dr. Pierce's Purgative Pellets (Little Liver Pills), cures Liver, Kidney and Bladder diseases. Their combined use also removes blood taints, and abolishes cancerous and scrofulous humors from the system.

"Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee, from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years.

Large bottles (100 doses) $1.00, or six bottles for $5.00.

FRUIT HOUSE PRICES FOR '87

:o:

Quite a change has taken place in a great many goods the last sixty days, the tendency being in most cases upwards. This is the case, especially in Coffee and Dried Fruits, Sugars, Teas, Syrups, Spices and Tobaccos, have not advanced, but from indications they will. It will pay our customers to purchase liberally.

Sugars—White and Yellow.

Yellow C Sugar, 5½c. Standard A Sugar, 6½c. Granulated Sugar, 7c. Powdered Sugar, 7c. Cut Loaf Sugar, 7c.

NO ADVANCE ON TEAS,

Yet they will not likely remain at such low prices in the face of the large advance on Coffee. We continue to maintain our prestige in the Tea trade. Our trade has grown immensely in that line. People have no longer to send off to purchase their Teas. In order to save money we keep up the plan of buying in large lots of the importers and re-selling direct to our customers at a small profit, thereby saving to our customers the intermediate profits of jobber and wholesale dealer—which is not less than 10 to 20c.

Good, 15c per pound; choice, 30c; best, 50c. Imperial tea—Green, good, 30c; best, 50c, Gunpowder tea, 30c; best, 50c. Oolong or Black tea, 20c, 30c; best, 50c; Japan tea, 20c, 30c; best, 50c. Above prices on teas are the lowest on record and the best teas are of the highest quality—no better anywhere—the other grades are good, sweet, drawing teas and will please the most fastidious tea drinkers. Just give them a trial and satisfy yourself.

Coffee—Rio, Java and Roasted.

Best Rio coffee, 20c, per pound; best roasted Rio, 24c per pound; German coffee, 26c per pound; Housekeepers' Choice, 28c per pound; Dannemiller's, 26c. per cent.

Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Prunes, Raisins, Currents, &c., &c.

Turkish prunes, 5c; figs, per pound, 10c; peeled peaches, 20c; dried cherries, 18; unpeeled peaches, 8c; dried raspberries, 30c; dried apples, 6c; dried blackberries, 15c.

Leghorn Citron, 22c; orange and lemon peel, 15c; Valencia raisins, 8c; best layer raisins, 12½c; Zantee currants, 8c; shelled almonds, 30c; seedless raisins, 10c.

Candies—Stick, Mixed and Bon Bons.

Pure stick candy, 10c; pure mixed candy, 10c; fancy toy candy, 20c, toy candies, 20c; Brazil nuts, 10c quart; almond nuts, 15c quart; mixed nuts, 15c quart; walnuts and filberts, 12½c quart.

Syrups---Maple and Sugar Syrups and New Orleans Molasses.

Pure Maple syrup, 70c a gallon; golden drips, 40c; Sorghum, 40c; New Orleans molasses, 35c; best, 40c. The sorghum is splendid and 10c lower than we ever sold it before.

WINES AND LIQUORS FOR MEDICAL PURPOSES.

Old 76, $2.50 per gallon; two years old, $1.75; one year old, $1.40 per gallon; new whisky, $1 and $1.25 per gallon; Port and Sherry wine, $1.25 per gallon; California wine, $1.25 per gallon; wines in bottles, 40c.

Machine Oils, Fish Oil, Lard Oil and Neatsfoot Oil, and Headlight Oil and Castor Oil.

Daily Sentinel

TUESDAY, AUGUST 2, 1887.

THE CITY NEWS.

The public parks are watered daily.

Jesse Darrow left for Rome City this morning.

Mr. L. M. Jones is going to Colorado for his health.

Mr. Bayless Swift is enjoying a two weeks' vacation.

Henry Clay, of Fort Wayne, has just been granted a pension.

Dr. Charley Stemen will return from Kansas City this week.

It is reported that counterfeit postage stamps are in circulation.

Dr. H. A. Read went to Pierceton this morning on professional business.

H. L. and Geo. S. Evans, of Fort Wayne, were at Indianapolis yesterday.

Officer John O'Connell, one of the finest, was detained from duty by illness last night.

Miss Katie Brown, of West Berry street, is entertaining her friend, Miss Mary Godown.

Mayor Stuart, of Lafayette, gives notice that he will hereafter suppress houses of ill-fame.

Supt. George F. Felts will conduct a special examination of teachers next Saturday afternoon.

Mail Carrier Mensch will not resume his duties for a week or so. He overworked himself and must rest.

Louis Schmidt, prescriptionist at Mr. R. B. Noll's Broadway drug store, is enjoying his vacation at Petoskey.

Charles J. Schnabel, formerly of this city, is visiting his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Becker, of Washington street.

The "Mets" and the Columbia City nine will initiate the new base ball diamond at the fair grounds to-morrow afternoon.

Wm. Dunn, a resident of this city in 1878, died Sunday at New York. He is a nephew of Wm. Dunn, of the Boston dry goods store.

F. C. Shafer, a short-hand writer, formerly secretary to Supt. G. W. Stevens, of the Wabash, left Lafayette without paying a board bill.

Mrs. Mary Ann Miller, mother-in-law of Joseph N. Stein, died at 6:45 last evening, at the residence of her son, Charles Miller, of 59 Charles street.

Elder E. G. Anderson will fill the pulpit of the Baptist church next Sunday. Efforts are being made to secure the services of Rev. Dickinson, of La-Grange, to preach during the absence of Rev. S. A. Northrop.

Mr. L. S. Brockerman, the genial foreman of the Nickel Plate yards, last night celebrated the thirty-fifth anniversary of his birth, at his home, on Riverside avenue. A splendid supper was served and a very enjoyable time was had.

The gas well at Hartford City is not the attraction that draws George Thain, the popular Calhoun street barber, to that city so often of late. There are a number of interesting femenine beauties in that little city, and George is not such an incorrigible bachelor as to be proof against their charms.

Two sons of Silas Goodrich, aged seven and ten respectively, living eight miles this side of Columbia City, engaged in filling cartridges from a flask filled with powder. A lighted match fell into the flask, caused an explosion, and both boys were very badly burned. One will die and the other lose his eyesight.

George D. Ohneck, the deputy revenue collector, has advertised thirty-five and a half gallons of two-year-old Bourbon whisky, which was seized by him for a violation of the internal revenue laws, to be sold on the 8th of August. Whisky is a safe article to sell at public auction and the chances are it won't sell at much of a sacrifice.

The snug dwelling house of Ludwig Jacobs, in Nebraska, caught fire yesterday afternoon, and the roof and part of the upper story was burned off. Mrs. Jacobs claimed to have had $300 under the bedtick up stairs and begged some one to rescue the boodle. The firemen went up but could only find $15. It is supposed the rest of the money was lost in the flames. The residence was insured for $500 in one of the agencies represented by Glutting & Bauer.

It was Dr. J. C. Haller, a prominent physician of Van Wert, who was so badly beaten Saturday night by Lat. Dull, a farmer living ten miles south, and it is very doubtful if he will recover. The cause of the trouble is that Mrs. Dull died during the spring, while a patient of the doctor, and Dull, whose mind is thought to be unbalanced by his loss, imagines it was for want of proper care. After beating Dr. Haller over the head with a club, Dull escaped to the woods and has not been seen since.

A stranger giving his name as James Watson, an old man fifty-three years of age, met with what is likely to prove a fatal accident at Lafayette yesterday morning. He was walking along the Wabash track, near Union street, when the east-bound passenger, due there at 9:12, came dashing along. Watson attempted to board the front end of the mail car, but missed his hold and was thrown with terrible force to the ground. In the fall his head was struck by a journal on the trucks, crushing one side in and knocking him senseless.

Save your tickets! All three of the grand capital prizes will be drawn September 1, in case numbers 1,104, 1,930 and 907 are not presented before that time. Messrs. Sam, Pete & Max are determined that somebody shall secure these grand presents. The daily presentation of valuable gifts, the popular scheme of the day, and going the year round. No dull times at the Star, business booming, stock immense, prices way down. 30d&w-tf.

The city council will meet to-night.

There was no police court this morning.

John LeGraw is very ill with rheumatism.

The child of Engineer Titus continues very ill.

The Salvation Army barracks are deserted.

Miss Della Ross has returned from a visit in the east.

Mr. C. W. Orr has returned from Kennebunkport, Me.

The delinquent tax collector will soon be on the war path.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Dwenger has returned from Mackinaw.

Robert Cunningham, of the Star Iron Tower company, is at Peoria.

Mrs. E. S. Philley left for Rome City this morning to attend the assembly.

Miss Ella Nelligan, of 33 West Lewis street, has considerably improved in health.

Mrs. John C. McCulloch, of 37 Madi-street, has gone to Ishpeming, Mich., to visit relatives.

Engineer Frank Murphy, of the Nickel Plate, is at Cleveland, where his mother is dangerously ill.

Anton Arenz was to-day bound over in the sum of $500 for murderous assault on his step-son, Neubauer. Arenz gave bail.

The Grand Rapids train took a number of people to Rome City, this morning, to attend the Assembly. No regular excursion was run however.

Miss Lettia Green, of 179 Jackson street, left last evening for Minneapolis, Minn. While there she will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Stirling.

John Lehr made three unsuccessful attempts to force a tax levy in the Seventh ward yesterday. He was ejected and will file affidavits against the offenders.

A horse attached to a spring wagon fell on Calhoun street this morning and broke a shaft of the vehicle. Quite a crowd assembled to advise the lady who owned the outfit.

Dr. George W. Loag holds the ribbons over one of the handsomest and best team of mares in the state. If any one goes by the doctor on the road they will have to do it flying.

The death of John Grosh occurred at his late residence this morning at 2 o'clock. The funeral will take place from St. Peters church on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock.

Charles Winslow, a colored razor operator from Columbia street, attempted to carve William E. Ford last night and was arrested this morning. Justice Ryan will dipose of this African warfare.

Editor James Mitchell filed an affidavit in Ryan's court last evening, charging Clerk Davis, of the Sam, Pete and Max clothing house, with assault. This morning Mr. Mitchell dismissed the suit.

Last Sunday, at Detroit, Rev. Ferdinand Tresselt, son of Ex-councilman Christian Tresselt, of this city, was ordained to preach the gospel and has accepted the pastorate of a Lutheran church at that city.

J. L. Kemp, a Pittsburg brakeman, sprained an ankle at Van Wert and was brought to this city under care of Dr. Stemen. A passenger named White, on the same train, had an arm crushed. He lives at Van Wert.

Receiver McNulta is handling the Wabash proper with an ability which calls forth favorable comment on the part of the courts and railroad men. He expects to be able to pay another coupon upon the bonds secured by the underlying mortgage on Sept. 1.

John M. Hengesteler, living at the corner of Hanna and Pontiac streets, is lying very low with sickness and his family is in destitute circumstances. The attention of benevolent citizens is called to this case, as Mr. Hengesteler has been unable to work for a long time.

The following building permits have been granted: to Charles Krudop, to erect an office on lot 175 Hannas addtiion, to cost $30; to Fred Drage, to erect two one story frame houses on lot 12, Colerick's addition, to cost $500 each; to F. Reitze, to erect a two story frame house on lot 203, Rockhill's addition, to cost $1,500.

The secretary of state yesterday received articles of consolidation of the Dayton and Ironton and the Dayton and Chicago railroad companies, whose lines extend from Dayton to Fort Wayne, and the new link is to be known as the Dayton, Fort Wayne and Chicago. They are now narrow guage, but will be made standard.

Herman Krohne, 'the gunsmith, received intelligence from Hanover, Germany, yesterday, that his bachelor uncle died, leaving an estate valued at about $60,000. His end came suddenly and he made no will, hence his property will be divided among his legal heirs by the courts. Mr. Krohne forwarded proofs of his identity at once to secure his share of the fortune.

Joseph Griffin, a prominent contractor of Springfield, Ohio, aarived here at noon and took charge of the remains of his brother, Henry Griffin, whose sudden death at Pete Koehlinger's boarding house was noted yesterday. Dr. J. M. Dinnen made an examination of the body this morning and pronounced that death was from heart disease. The remains of the dead stone mason were prepared for shipment to Springfield by Franks & Wellman.

Last Saturday east bound passenger train No. 4, on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad, due at Mansfield at 10:07 p. m., was telescoped by a freight train at Lawrence, a small station sixty miles east of that city, between Orrville and Massillon. Particulars are that the last coach of the passenger train was thrown from the track and broken into splinters. Quite a number of passengers were in the coach. It is said that four passengers were seriously injured and as many more slightly bruised. All trains were delayed five hours.

NEVER

Such an Opportunity as Now to Obtain the Very Best Values for Little Money.

—:o:—

No use Buying trash when such splendid values are going so cheap. We must, will and shall close out as many goods prior to our removal, October 1, as can be done, if letting down the prices to low ebb counts.

See here! Look at the figures! Compare the reductions!

Men's Laundried, colored Percale Shirts, two and three colars, extra cuffs, regular $1.50, $1.25 and $1.00 grades, some slightly soiled, all now at 69c.

$3.00, $2.75, $2 50 Felt Stiff Hats, (light or dark) all now $1.98.

Men's Summer Hats, 50c, 40c and 25c grade, all now 10c.

Men's Jeans Pants, at 50c, 75c, and $1; worth more.

Children's Suits $1, $1.50, $2.50 and up; worth nearly double.

Children's Short Pants, at 19c. 25c and up; connot be matched.

In Men's Boys' and Children's Suits prices have been reduced, in many cases scarcely costing more than the material.

It pays to attend the grand clearance sale prior to our removal. Big reduction on short lots.

Miss Clara Lordier has returned from a month's visit to friends and relatives at Chicago and Valparaiso.

A son of Sebastian Miller, who resides on A. C. Trentman's farm, was badly injured in a runaway accident.

John Grosh, aged fifty-seven years, died at his home, 340 Force street, of consumption, this morning. His funeral occurs Thursday morning.

Mr. John Robbins has already collected $2,228 delinquent taxes for County Treasurer Dalman, whose term of office expires this month.

Mrs. Ed. Biewend, Mrs. Edward O'Rourke and Mrs. George Bowen left this morning for Rome City, Dr. Willet being the magnate to-day.

The Huntington Herald says: "Dennis O'Brien, street commissioner of Fort Wayne, was the guest of his brother, P. O'Brien, civil engineer of this city, Saturday."

Dr. Adams, of Maumee township, came into the city to-day and reports the mysterious disappearance of a farmer named Hall. He left a family penniless.

Fred Baade, the brother of the mail carrier, is dangerously ill. He was overcome by the heat and fears for his recovery are now entertained, as he was thought to be dying this morning.

John Lenneman, aged forty-eight years, died of typhoid fever yesterday, at his house, corner of Fair and Center streets. He will be buried to-morrow afternoon from St. John's Lutheran church.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ulrich, who was the guest of Joe Studer, of West Main street, died at his home yesterday, aged seventy-two years. Her funeral occurs to-morrow morning from St. Paul's Catholic church.

Jonathan Houser, of the Hedekin house; Russell George, of 36 Barr street, and Jesse Batchelder, of Fairfield avenue, were fined for violating the Sunday law yesterday. Batchelder stayed his fine for ninety days.

Mr. Jacob Kern, the genial deputy county clerk, left this morning on the Wabash for Toledo and a trip of the lakes. He will visit Detroit and Chicago, before his return and "Jake" will undoubtedly enjoy himself.

The carpenter work for the Berghoff brewery was yesterday let to John Snelzer, and the brick work to Wm. Moellering. The brewery is to be finished two months from August 5, and January 1, next, the brewery will be in operation.

Wm. Williams, was arrested this morning on complaint of Barbara Klug, who charges that he is the father of her prospective babe. Justice Ryan held Williams in the sum of $500 to appear for trial. He is a blacksmith in the employ of Freistoffer and may wed the girl as he certainly should.

At shortly after 7 o'clock last evening occurred the death of Mrs. Mary Ann Miller, at the residence of her son, Charles, 59 Charles street, aged 68 years. The funeral will take place on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock from the Cathedral. Friends are invited to attend without further notice.

Dr. Trexler's remains were taken to the depot yesterday in an ordinary express wagon and then shipped to Pennsylvania. It is said the doctor's first wife is still alive and a resident of Allentown. The friends of the lady who has passed as his wife in this city insist that the doctor married her at Decatur, Ind., and that twice she has visited with him at his old home in Pennsylvania. The funeral arrangements of the doctor in this city were not in keeping with the means he left to provide for them.

WILLIAM DUCK

Discovers an Airy Stranger in His Little Cottage on Montgomery Street.

William Duck is a railroad man and he resides at No. 76 Montgomery street. He got in on his run about 3 o'clock this morning and at once started home. With his night key he entered the house and proceeded to his wife's bordoir. He expected to see her face wreathed in expectant smiles and her lips fixed to welcome him with a kiss, but things did not pan out as his fancy painted them.

William's eye feasted itself on a stranger in scanty attire. There was considerable stir and quicker than a flash the apparition-like intruder fled through the window into the street and over the hills.

Mr. Duck has a suit of clothes to dispose of and some other articles of wearing apparel that he cannot lay legal claim to.

Of course, he suspicioned who his visitor was and filed an affidavit against him in Justice Ryan's court. He later interviewed the suspected gentleman, who is a tailor, and withdrew the case.

It is not known that Mrs. Duck figured in the reconcilation, but it is presumed she did, bless her.

ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY KINSEY, of Philadelphia, recently sent to the Grand Jury an indictment in the following words: "That Louisa Ebriline, on June 22, 1887, and on each and every day thence continually until the day of the finding of this indictment, was and is a common eavesdropper, and on each and all of said days and times did listen about the houses and under the windows and eaves of the houses of the citizens and their dwellings, bearing tattle and repeating the same in the hearing of other persons, to the common nuisance of the citizens of this Commonwealth and against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania." The offense set out in this indictment is the common-law one of eavesdropping, and there is no known record of such an indictment ever having been prepared in Philadelphia. The Grand Jury found the bill true.

A Fall in Watches.

"Do you see this old watch?" said a watchmaker to a reporter for the Pittsburgh Dispatch. He held up an article that looked more like a mantel clock, and proceeded to open it up. By some twist of the thumb nail that only a watchmaker knows, he opened the outer case and it looked much like the shell of a cocoanut. The interior portion resembled the kernel. The thumb nail got to work again and the glass case was raised. Again the thumb nail acted, and the works were turned out on a hinge, and they looked big and area enough to run a rolling mill.

"That watch doesn't look as though it was worth much," continued the watchmaker, "and yet its owner, who was in here a few moments ago, said he must have it fixed at any price. I found a couple of pivots broken, several teeth bent, and other damages. I told him it would cost $4. 'Fix it up,' he said, 'I don't care if it cost $10 to fix it. That watch belongs to my father. He has had it for many years, long before I was born. I don't think it could keep time enough for a pawnbroker, yet he wants it fixed and it must be done.'

"Now," continued the watchmaker, "that is a very old style of watch. He could buy a far better one for the price he would have to pay for repairing it, and one that would be much more suitable, too. It is a burden to carry such a watch. But men liked them when they plowed, hammered around trees, fell into rivers, etc. This old watch survives such mishaps, though it doesn't keep decent time. It can't. Its machinery is too rough and too old to keep good time.

"Yes, there has been a great change in the style of watches. Years ago big watches, with all the flowering that could be put on the cases, were the style. Then came the opposite, and plain watches were the demand. The lady's watch came, a neat, delicate little thing, and the men thought the little watches were the ne plus ultra. And the jewelers began to bedeck the cases with pearls and other stones, and the articles brought big prices. After a time the neat silver watch began to get its hooks in, and it was all the rage.

"Prices for watches have fallen remarkably in the last ten years. I remember when people paid $250 and $300 for a hunting-case gold watch that you can get for $50 or $60, and sometimes for less. The change in price is due to the fact that the makers, after a time, found they could make cases much cheaper than they had been doing. The works were made much cheaper by the use of machinery, and of course the price fell, being helped along by competition."

Cheap Excursions

HE WANTS IT.

But if Mr. Blaine Succeeds in Knocking the Persimmons From the Presidential Tree Sherman will Support Him.

BUFFALO, Aug. 2.—Recently the Express, of this city, printed some reminiscences of the Hon. A. N. Cole, who claims to have been the father of the republican party, and John Sherman wrote this decidedly pertinent letter to Mr. Cole:

"I have read with deep interest what is said in a number of July 10 in reference to Blaine's opinion of myself. It is quite true, as Mr. Blaine says that he and I had been on intimate terms always and we have always had the highest regard for each other. We were both presented as candidates in 1880. But then some of Mr. Blaine's friends in Ohio made the fatal mistake of dividing the Ohio delegation and refused to vote for me but voted for Blaine. This not only defeated me, but prevented the concentration of the Ohio delegation in favor of Blaine on the night before the last day of the convention, when he said he hoped the Ohio delegation would unite upon me, and if so my nomination would follow as a matter, of course. But so much feeling had been caused by the division that it was found impossible and was only reconciled by the nomination of General Garfield. It may be that the same division will produce a like result in the approaching canvass. I certainly have no objection to the nomination of Mr. Blaine and if he is nominated I will do what I did in 1880—do all I can to secure his election. He is more injured than benefitted by the activity of his friends in making divisions in the republican states."

OLIVER H. MORGAN

Sends Three Bullets Into His Breast and is Discovered Dead Near His Father's House—a Victim of Insomnia.

Oliver H. Morgan killed himself early this morning on the premises surrounding his father's residence, at the corner of East Washington and Clinton streets.

Oliver Morgan was approaching his thirty-second year and has lived in the city since childhood. He has long been engaged as a clerk in the hardware store of Morgan & Beach, his father being the senior partner, as well as school trustee, a director in the Old New National bank and a gentleman whom the people have often honored.

His son, the unfortunate victim of this sketch, was widely known and had his friends. When a mere lad R. G. McNiece rebuked in his paper, the Gazette, some youthful indiscretions of young Morgan and the remorse of that day lingered with him, yet some people look lightly on a newspaper paragraph.

He was recluse and meditative. The indulgencies of his father and the pleasant surroundings of his home would not cheer his life. From remorse came restlessness, then insomnia, and of late the young man slept a troublous sleep. Last night he was down street, but nothing unusual was noted about his manner. He went home later and retired, it was supposed, for the night. There was no rest for him, and as the bed evidenced this morning, he rolled and tossed on it. He heard the clocks put time behind them without relief or peace of mind and at midnight he dressed himself, secured his revolver and proceeding to the yard in the rear of his home he sent three bullets into the region of his heart.

At that hour the household heard something like the muffled report of pistol shots, but dreamt not that they meant such grief to them.

Mr. John Mohr, who resides just across the street, heard the shooting, but the report seemed to come from a distance off. He arose, however, listened and heard low moaning sounds for a moment or two and then all was still. He could not locate the pistol shots and the murmurs of agony together, so he banished the matter from his mind, and it was then that the soul of the sufferer went on its flight into eternity.

This morning at 5 o'clock, when the servants went into the yard they were horrified to find young Morgan lying dead near the door steps, with a pistol in his hand and blood coming from the wounds in his left breast.

His father and other members of the family hastened to the scene of a sad a suicide and carried the body into the house, where Mr. J. C. Peltier embalmed it preparatory for burial.

Mr. Morgan is stricken with grief at the untimely death of his son, to whom he was so indulgent, and while Oliver H. Morgan had his faults, his failings and his follies, he had the big heart of his father, and people who knew him best liked him most.

THE SENTINEL extends to the family its sympathy in this hour of their grief.

THE INQUEST.

Dr. J. M. Dinnen viewed the remains this morning and pronounced death from suicide. He located one bullet directly through young Morgan's heart and the hour of the shooting 12 15 a. m.

Mr. Morgan's funeral will occur Thursday morning at 8:30 o'clock. Services at the First Presbyterian church.

An Earthquake.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—Dispatches from Jacksonville, Centralia and Jonesville this morning indicate that an earthquake occurred at these points. It was noted at Nashville, Tenn., St. Louis, Mo., and Evansville, Ind. It was general throughout southern and central Illinois. At Jacksonville the vibrations seemed from east to west, but at Jonesboro from north to south. At the latter place a rumbling noise was heard of sufficient force to shake windows in the frames.

FRED STEIG CAPTURED.

A Clever Piece of Work, the Officer Being Compelled to Steal His Man Away.

Yesterday THE SENTINEL noted briefly that Fred Steig, alias Webber, who escaped from the Cincinnati jail about four weeks since, was arrested in the country five miles north of this city yesterday by Detective Robert Cunningham, of Cincinnati. The detective was assisted by Deputy Sheriff Tom Wilkinson. The tracking of Steig was a good piece of detective work as has ever occurred in this state. Two officers from Cincinnati spent a week here looking for him, and all that time he was employed at the Bass Machine works as a laborer and was constantly outside working in the foundry yards. Cunningham found that a trunk was to be shipped him at Fort Wayne. He came ahead of the trunk and learned that it was to be sent to the paper-mills on the St. Joe river, five miles north of the city to Fred Webber. Detective Cunningham had never seen his man, but, going there, he impersonated an expressman, and called out that he had a trunk for a man named Webber. Webber at once answered that it was his. Before he was aware of it Cunningham had the handcuffs on him, and had thrown him into a buggy and was on his way to Fort Wayne. On arriving in this city Steig employed an attorney, who at once got out a writ of habeas corpus.

Sheriff Hebott, of Cincinnati, came here last night, forced his prisoner into a buggy and with Cunningham and Wilkinson drove Steig to the Ohio state line out of the reach of Hoosier courts.

Steig was a "trusty" about the Cincinnati jail. He eloped with Mattie Kizer, who was held as a witness, and came with her to this city where she left him.

FATHER O'REILLY,

The Distinguished Valparaiso Priest, Stricken With Paralysis.

Telegrams last night to Rt. Rev. Bishop Dwenger, from Valparaiso, brought the startling information that Father O'Reilly was stricken with paralysis. Vicar General Brammer and Father O'Leary left on the midnight train for Valparaiso. Father Brammer telegraphed the bishop this morning that the invalid was unconscious. Father O'Reilly is well known and has many friends in Fort Wayne who will grieve at this news and pray for his recovery. Father O'Reilly was ordained by Bishop Luers December 22, 1862, and has been at Valparaiso ever since.

FOREIGN NEWS.

PARIS, Aug. 2.—The seconds of ex-Premier Ferry and those of General Boulanger have decided that a duel is necessary.

General Boulanger's seconds publish the report of what they say transpired at the conference between them and the seconds of M. Ferry, which is to the effect that Boulanger made two propositions as to the exchange of shots and distance, while Ferry's seconds insisted on twenty five paces with single exchange shots, the fire to be opened at the word of command. Thereupon, as the offended party has a right to dictate the conditions of the duel, without being obliged to submit to the terms dictated by his adversaries seconds, General Boulanger's seconds withdrew from the affair.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—The government has decided to subsidize the Canadian Pacific road for the transportation of the trans-Pacific mails.

Killed His Young Wife.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Mrs. Lillie Schlimmer, a fifteen-year-old wife, was murdered in cold blood by her youthful husband, Joseph, in Jersey City, yesterday afternoon. The couple were married without the consent of the girl's parents, and on account of her age it was agreed they should not live together for two years. It is said young Schlimmer had been endeavoring to persuade the girl to leave the parental roof, but she refused. This afternoon she was walking down Erie street with her mother and grandmother. Schlimmer walked up to her and placing a pistol at her breast, fired. She fell to the sidewalk and died. Schlimmer stopped to tell the grandmother that she was responsible for the tragedy and then fled.

At Pike's Peak Summit.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Aug. 2.—Some fifty persons, representing almost every state in the union, ascended Pike's Peak yesterday and when on the top the party organized. The meeting appointed B. J. Fisher, of St. Louis, Judge Kerr, of Pueblo, Col., and Kate P. Hampton, of South Carolina, a committee to draft resolutions inviting President Cleveland, during his western visit, to Colorado Springs.

In Ninety Days.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—McGarigle is still at Sarnia, where he expects to be joined by his family in a day or two. He still boasts that he will be back to Chicago "a free man" within ninety days.

THE BOY MURDERER.

John Beall, Who Shot His Mother and Then Nearly Beheaded Her With an Ax, Makes a Confession.

EATON, Ohio, Aug. 2.—John Beall, thirteen years old, who has been in jail for six weeks on the charge of killing his mother, has made a confession to the prosecuting attorney, sheriff and an ex-sheriff. It was not written down and the persons are secretive about the details.

On June 13, this boy was at home alone with his mother at the farm house and about 4 o'clock he alarmed the neighbors by saying that three tramps had killed his mother and that he was asleep and awakened in time to see them leaving with some money and a watch. The watch has since been found in a vault, where the boy admits he threw it. The boy had shot his mother twice and then nearly beheaded her with an ax. No motive for the crime can be assigned, except that he was angry at what seemed to him to be an evidence of favoritism shown to his sister by his mother on the day of the murder. He expected to go to Eaton with his mother to get a suit of clothes, but instead his father took his sister to town and thus he was left at home with his mother.

A Bad Fight.

CAIRO, Ill., Aug. 2.—The steamer Gondola took a negro excursion, coming down the Mississippi Sunday, at Hickman, Ky. Several whites got aboard, who got into a quarrel with a negro on the way down. When the boat returned to Hickman an affair broke out with a fight with knives and pistols, in which twenty-five or thirty men were involved, black and white. Five are wounded, more or less seriously, and one died yesterday from the effects of wounds and others are in a precarious state.

A Triple Tragedy.

CAMDEN, N. J., Aug. 2.—A more horrible tragedy never occured in this city than that which occured in South Camden a few minutes before 6 o'clock last evening, when Wm. Wilhabits, 52 years of age, and keeper of an oyster saloon, shot his wife Ella, aged 47, deliberately murdered Justice of the Peace Wm. S. Darr (colored), and then finished the work of destruction by sending a bullet through his own brain, dying almost instantly.

Catholic Convention.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—An invitation has been issued to all the German-American catholics to meet at Chicago on September the sixth. The objects of the convention is the consideration of the differences existing between the German and Irish Catholics and to discuss the labor problem.

Should Have Shot Himself First

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Aug. 2.—George Whittstein, in a fit of jealousy, yesterday shot his wife three times and then shot himself. He died in fifteen minutes and his wife's wounds are fatal. He was seventy and she was thirty years of age.

Mrs. Cleveland in Massachusetts.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 2.—Mrs. Grover Cleveland and her mother and aunt arrived at Marion at 11 o'clock this morning. They will be the guests of General A. W. Greeley who has a summer residence here.

He Gets Two Years.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—Judge Shepard denied a new trial to Edward S. McDonald and W. J. McGarigle, charged with conspiracy, and sentenced McDonald to a term of two years in the penitentiary.

A Murder Case.

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio, Aug. 2.—The jury in the celebrated case of Alf McCoy, charged with the murder of Dr. Northrup, returned a verdict of murder in the second degree.

IN THE BUSY WORLD.

Personal Points and Pithy Paragraphs Picked up Around the Shops and Railroads of the City.

Three new men went to work in the Wabash shops this morning.

The Olds' wheel works shipped two car loads of wheels north this morning.

John Sullivan, of the Pittsburg boiler shops, returned from Richmond yesterday.

Christ Eberwine, the machinist in the Bass works who has been sick for some time, is improving.

Thomas Sheppard, one of the oldest employes in the Pittsburg boiler shops, is on the sick list.

Jacob Strasser, a machinist in the Bass foundry, left today for Niagara Falls on a summer tour.

Engineer A. J. Young, of the Nickel Plate, left yesterday, with his family for a trip through the south.

Oscar Brooks, the genial clerk at Olds' wagon works, left this morning for a ten days trip of the big lakes.

F. Fowler, a Pittsburg machinist, left for Chicago to-day and from thence will make a tour of the lakes for his health.

Master Mechanic F. D. Casanave has issued an order to each of the formen of the Pittsburg shops to supply the employes with oat-meal water, and the boys are now reveling in that healthy and delightful luxury.

John Sullivan, a boiler maker in the Pittsburg shops, was taken sick yesterday an hour after he had gone to work and is still detained at his home.

Robert Harrison, the popular general foreman of the Pittsburg machine shops, is a lover of the beautiful and has a boquet of roses on his desk almost every day.

Morris Lee, a Pittsburg machinist, with his wife and family, are now cosily ensconsed under canvass at Eagle Lake, Warsaw, where they will remain for several weeks.

James Foster, an apprentice in the Pittsburg machine shops, has been granted a leave of absence and will rusticate for a few weeks at Nanituck lake, near Plymouth.

Road Supervisor Ed Murphy, of the Nickel Plate, still experiences difficulty in obtaining men to work on the sidings. A large gang is employed lowering the grade at Peabody, a few miles west of the city.

The mother of Charles and George Miller, of the Bass works, died last evening at her home, and the two young men have the sympathy of their fellow employes in the Bass foundry in their sad affliction.

Joe Dwenger, the apprentice in the Bass works, is cultivating his voice, but his beautiful melodies are not appreciated by the machinists. He sings at his best when on his way Sunday nights to see his best girl, and on such occasions as these the boys are willing to let him sing as loud and as long as he wants to.

Joseph Cairns, the veteran machinist in the Pittsburg shops, who has been rusticating for the past month in and about Wichita, Kan., has returned and resumed work in the shop to-day. He can a tale to you unfold respecting jack rabbits, pole-bar bares, and she-mots-goits that would entertain a group for an evening.

Theodore Weichman, a machinist in the Bass foundry, is now seriously contemplating matrimony. He is considerably bothered about it, because there are seven girls who divide his heart's affection, but his attentions seem to have centered on an east end girl and wedding bells may be heard in that vicinity before long.

An employe of the Pittsburg machine shops found a letter this morning on Lafayette street, between Montgomery and Lewis, bearing the following inscription: "Ferdinand Kruger, No. 2123 Third street, Dayton, Ohio." Not knowing who the sender was he mailed it and the person who lost the letter will know by this that his lost letter will undoubtedly reach its destination.

The committee from the Pittsburg railroad shops, consisting of Messrs. Judy, Graham and Sloan, in reference to the contemplated excursion to Warsaw, waited upon Assistant Master Mechanic Potter yesterday and he has written to Superintendent Law in regard to the matter. Superintendent Law is out of the city at present, but the boys think that he will grant them their petition and that their excursion is a sure thing.

"Some of the roads might tell some facts against their patrons which would surprise a great many people," said a prominent railroad official to the reporter this morning. "You would be surprised to find to what contemptible smallness some men will descend to beat a railroad company. Here is an instance: There were a number of merchants who were in the habit of buying silverware and having it shipped as 'nuts and bolts.' At one time some of these people invented a nice little scheme for beating the railroads. They would buy a bill of goods in New York, and among the bill would be two or three pieces of silk. They would direct it at the silk be kept out of the box in which the other goods were packed, and retained until directions for shipping were forwarded. But the silk was to be charged in the invoice. They would claim when the box was opened that the silk had been abstracted, and would produce the invoice and substantiate their claim. They would swear to the invoice, too. This thing went on until the company grew suspicious, because one or two men would always be short. We sent a man on to the consignor and discovered how the neat little game was worked. There are a dozen other similar schemes for defrauding the railroads, but we get onto them more quickly than we used to do."

The Dead of a Month.

Dr. S. C. Metcalf makes the following mortuary report commencing July 1 and ending July 31, 1887: Alcoholism, 2; asphyxiar, 1; Bright's disease, 3; bronchitis, 1; consumption, 10; cholera infantum, 18; cancer, 1; convulsions, 1; exhaustion, 7; hemorrhage, inflammation stomach, 1 malarial fever, 1; marasmus, 1; measles, 2; meningitis, 7; old age, 2; paralysis, 2; premature birth, 4; rheumatic fever, 1; railroad accident, 2; heat, 1; total, 70. Nationality: American, 61; English, 1; French, 1; Germans, 5; Irish, 2. Sex: Males, 36; females, 34. Age of decedents: Under 1 year of age, 37; from 1 to 5 years, 7; 10 to 20 years, 3; from 20 to 40 years, 11; from 40 to 60 years, 6; from 60 to 80 years, 4; from 80 to 90 years, 2.

Mr. J. G. Grimme & Sons, the tailors, will occupy the alley building in the Schmidt block as soon as it is fixed up. Mrs. Kratsch will move into the building they vacate next to Hover's art gallery.

Encourage our base ball club by witnessing the contest between them and the Columbia City to-morrow.

WITH HER CHILD

Mrs. W. H. Lisle Meets Death in Attempting to Jump from a Train at Fort Edwards, N. Y.

SARATOGA, Aug. 2.—Mrs. W. H. Lisle, of Lansingburg, with her two small children, left on the 6:25 train last evening for Glens Falls. At Fort Edward, about an hour later, the lady and one of the children received such injuries that they died in a few moments afterwards. The train stopped in Fort Edward and something occurred to excite the lady and she attempted to jump from the coach to the platform. She threw one of her children first, then sprang after it with the other child. She fell underneath the cars and received injuries which resulted in her death and that of her child. The other child was hurled out from under the moving car just ahead of the wheels by engineer Martin.

Labor Troubles Settled.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 2.—The Green glass manufacturers and workmen yesterday made an amicable settlement of the wage question and the working rules for the ensuing "blast" or year. The wages scale is unchanged. It was decided to allow one apprentice to every fifteen journeymen.

Riddled With Bullets.

NEWPORT, Ark., Aug. 2.—Last night a mob of masked men went to the jail at Jacksonport, and took Leonard Boyd, a wife murderer, and riddled him with bullets.

Kentucky is Safe.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 2.—The democratic ticket is elected by from 25,000 to 35,000 majority over the republican ticket, and will have a plurality of 20,000 over all tickets.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, August 2.—Indiana, fair weather, slight changes in temperature.

Ed Steis, a Pittsburg switchman, drove his wife from home a week ago. She went to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peschong, out in the country, and Steis, last Saturday, went out there and took her babe forcibly from her. The woman is in the city, but is afraid to go to her husband's home out near the new yards.

THE Amoy correspondent of the Hong Kong Daily Press tells the following story: This time the scene of disaster is a few miles farther away from Poh Sai, at the foot of a mountain called "Lam Thai Boo," in the Kang Kay district. A few days ago four of the villagers, discovering a tiger carrying away a goat from the neighboring field, followed in his pursuit with arms. The tiger took refuge in a cave at the foot of the mountain, and the villagers, thinking there was no other means of egress but the one through which he had entered, covered it up with brambles, thorns, and other wild herbage at hand. They then stationed one of their number on a rock overhanging the cave, and returned to the village to procure additional assistance. In the meantime the brute found some other loophole of escape from his confinement, and, suddenly confronting the man on the rock, tore him to pieces, and was nearly devouring him when his companions appeared on the scene. At the fourteenth shot the ferocious monster was brought down, and the half-devoured corpse of the ill-starred villager rescued from his clutches. This district of Kang Kay is [illegible] with tigers, and it affords a good field for the so-called hunters who wish for a better object for their rifles than [illegible] ones.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 2, 1887.

An enterprising woman is about to establish in London "A School for Wives." The curriculum includes "Instruction in cookery, dress-making, physiology, book-keeping, elocution, and debating." The latter quality, desirable in parliamentary proceedings, may be considered a superfluity in family circles. Debate is too closely associated with divorce to satisfy some exacting people.

THE Western Penitentiary of Pennsylvania can make cocoa mats so cheaply, as a specialty, that outside manufacturers have about abandoned the market. Now, however, by the New York law just passed, substantial protection is given the trade by the formidable tag which the goods must wear in that State, "Convict Made, 1887, Western Penitentiary of Pennsylvania."

THERE is a place in New York where the finest of wedding trousseaus, even down to the shoes, stockings, and everything else, may be hired for a night. When asked by friends after the marriage why they do not wear the dresses they tell them that they never intend to wear them after the first night. Men are also rigged up in wedding finery for $2. The ladies pay from $7 to $40 for their outfits.

THE only member of the late Mr. Greeley's family now living is his daughter, Miss Gabrielle M. Greeley, who four years ago bought her father's house and farm of eighty-two acres at Chappaqua, N. Y., for $10,000, and now resides there in company with Mrs. Chamberlain and Miss Chamberlain. The three children of Miss Greeley's dead sister, Mrs. Nicholas Smith, are living at Shelbyville, Ky.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND writes few letters and dictates none. His public papers he writes with his own hand. He uses a stub pen and a cork penholder, and in reading or writing wears spectacles with a black steel frame. He shaves himself every morning. He usually wears a black Prince Albert coat and black trousers, except in summer, when he wears a blue-flannel or serge suit with sack coat. He wears a 7¼ hat.

THE birthplace of beer is Egypt. A papyrus has been discovered on which a father reproaches his son for lounging about in taverns and drinking too much beer. From the Egyptians the art of brewing beer descended to the Ethiopians. While the Romans despised beer, the Germans of the north of Europe fully appreciated its good qualities. At present the yearly production throughout the world amounts to 140,000,000 hectoliters, England taking the lead with 45,000,000.

A NOTED rebel chief in Tonquin was recently captured and executed. After he was taken, to the questions put to him the prisoner would give no answer, and as soon as he was captured he tried to commit suicide by tearing open his stomach with his nails, biting his tongue, scratching his eyes out, and mutilating himself in still more horrible ways. He had very great influence with the literati. At his last examination he obtained first place, and he was President of the important association of Thau-ban.

THE Russian Administration of Prisons has just issued its report for 1885. January 1, 1885, there were 94,488 persons incarcerated throughout the Empire. In the course of a year 703,254 entered and 697,769 individuals were liberated, leaving a residue of 99,973 still in prison. Women formed about 8 per cent. of the convicted. Notwithstanding a certain amelioration of sanitary appliances in the jails, the rate of mortality remained stationary. Of the 88,002 prisoners who were treated in hospital, there were 2,169 men, 246 women, and 546 children. In this respect the Island of Saghalien stood in the worst position, its sick list showing a total of 60 per cent. on the year, but the number of deaths there is not given. Diseases arising from humidity, insufficient ventilation, and defective sanitary arrangements are the chief scourges of the state prisons. Among the 4,023 persons who passed through the prisons of St. Petersburg, 2,675 were accused of theft, 139 of political offenses, one of bigamy, and one of apostasy. The largest number of offenders belonged to the artisan class; but one is specified as a peasant. The expenses of the penitentiary service in the whole empire amounted to 11,798,614 rubles, being a diminution of 721,-259 rubles upon the expenditure of the preceding year. This economy was partially effected by reducing the cost of the equipment of the prisoners. There was a falling off in the receipts derived from the products of the prisoners' industry from 153,760 rubles in 1884 to [illegible] rubles in 1885. More over, the ... of Saghalien ... for labor ... the State ... rubles for the rights ... [illegible]

THE BUSINESS MEN

Handle The Natural Gas and Water Questions, and Invite President Cleveland to Fort Wayne.

There was an important meeting of the Business Men's exchange last night, and questions of public importance were discussed in a lively way.

The following communication was received from Hon. R. C. Bell:

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Aug. 1, 1887.

To the Business Men's Exchange of Fort Wayne, Ind.:

GENTLEMEN—We have been requested to submit to your body a proposition, relative to furnishing natural gas for supplying Fort Wayne.

We control a gas field lying within from thirty-seven (37) to fifty (50) miles of this city, containing a most abundant supply of gas of the best quality.

If a company shall be formed to pipe gas to Fort Wayne from this field, with a stock capital of $500,000 paid up, we will put down in this territory, at our own expense, wells sufficient to furnish thirty million (30,000,000) feet of gas per day (which quantity we deem amply sufficient to supply all the wants of the city), convey to such company our leases for the territory where the wells are situated; we will also furnish the right of way for pipes from the wells to the corporate limits of the city; the company to lay the necessary pipes and we will take in payment thereof ten thousand ($10,000) dollars in money and one hundred thousand ($100,000) dollars in the capital stock of such company. This proposition shall remain open for acceptance for the next sixty (60) days only.

W. W. WORTHINGTON,
R. C. BELL.

This proposition was referred to a committee of five, consisting of Messrs. White, Winch, Seavy, Beach and Moynihan, to report at the next meeting, if possible, upon the feasibility of organizing such a company as mentioned. The committee was also instructed to correspond with other neighboring natural gas companies, with the view of getting propositions from them.

J. B. Monning then submitted the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

FORT WAYNE, Ind.,
August 1, 1887.

Inasmuch as President Cleveland has accepted an invitation to visit St. Louis this fall, and it being probable that his route will lead through Fort Wayne; therefore,

Resolved, That the Business Men's exchange of Fort Wayne tender President Cleveland the hospitality of the city, and invite him to honor Fort Wayne with a visit, if only for a few hours; and be it further

Resolved, That the exchange extend to the president of the United States such invitation signed by all members of the exchange and citizens of Fort Wayne as soon as expedient.

JOHN B. MONNING.

A committee on invitation consisting of Messrs. Muhler, McCulloch, Monning, Lumbard, Grafle, Fox and Paul was appointed to prepare the invitation and secure the names of citizens as contemplated by the resolution.

The following resolution was then presented and adopted:

Whereas, The question of a water supply is uppermost in the minds of the people of Fort Wayne and now before the council for final solution; and

Whereas, The welfare of over 35,000 inhabitants and the safety of property demand immediate action; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Business Men's exchange (embracing in its membership some of the heaviest tax-payers in the city) believes the St. Joe river to be the most available, purest and best natural source of water supply touching Fort Wayne.

And the exchange further recognizes that the feeder canal not only reaches and controls the head waters of that great stream, but has ready facilities to convey the entire flow into the heart of the city; therefore,

It appears to the exchange that the purchase of the canal is the most desirable, economical and profitable investment the city can make, embracing as it does a supply, water power and lake possibilities; therefore,

The exchange most respectfully and very earnestly urges the council to give the proposition now before them favorable consideration and bring about the desired result, that the people of Fort Wayne may forever enjoy a cheap, wholesome and perpetual water supply.

The resolution was adopted, and a committee consisting of Hon. J. B. White, Fred Beach, George W. Seavy, A. S. Lanferty, J. C. Peters and P. A. Randall was named to present the matter to the city council to-night.

Horn-Books.

One of the rarest, and certainly one of the most interesting books in the library of the British Museum, is what our ancestors called a "horn-book." It was, in fact, their primer, the ordinary means by which they began their education; and down to the reign of George II. must have been very common, for we see by an entry in the account-book of the Archer family that one was sold in 1729 for twopence. At present there is no book more difficult to obtain. The one in the British Museum was found a quarter of a century ago in a deep closet built in the thick walls of an old farmhouse in Derbyshire. It is said a laborer engaged in pulling down the walls of the ancient house recognized it as that from which his father had been taught to read. Upon the back is a picture of Charles I., on horse-back, giving some approximation to its date. It is a single leaf, containing upon the front side the alphabet, large and small, in old English and Roman letters, ten short columns of monosyllables founded on the vowels, and the Lord's Prayer; all set in a frame of oak, now black with age, and protected by a slice of transparent horn, hence the name horn-book.

There is a handle by which to hold it, and in the handle a hole for a string, so it could hang from the girdle. A picture of 1720 represents a child running in leading strings with a horn-book tied to her side. A cheaper kind of horn-book had the leaf of printed paper pasted on the horn, and perhaps the greater number were made in this way. If so, it is not singular that they should be scarce, for they would be very easily destroyed. Shenstone writes in 1742 of

> "Books of stature small,
> Which with pellucid horn secured all
> To save from fingers wet the letters fair."

The alphabet upon the horn-books was always headed by a cross, and so frequently called Christ Cross Row, or in common speech, the Criss Cross Row, this being the title under which a very worn specimen is catalogued at Oxford. —Christian at Work.

Distress After Eating.

This result of indigestion will no longer be experienced if Simmons Liver Regulator is taken after each meal. It is such a good digester, and so mild and pleasant in its effect that it is used by many, after a hearty meal, to insure good digestion. The regulator does not nauseate or irritate the stomach, but corrects acidity, dispels foul gases, allays irritation, and assists the stomach in its digestion.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, New York City.

Central American Republics.

There is a strong tendency in our day, among the more enlightened nations, not only to approach toward those republican institutions which the people of the United States enjoy, but to adopt some form of union, or federation, in more or less respects resembling our own.

The two great empires of Central Europe — Germany and Austria-Hungary have been converted, within the past twenty-five years, into federal unions, in which each component State manages its local affairs, while the common interests and defence of the States are managed by the Central Government.

There is, moreover, an active and growing movement to form the kingdoms and colonies of the British Empire into a vast federation, each to have its own local legislature to make local laws and regulations, and the Imperial Parliament to deal with objects common to all.

A somewhat similar plan is proposed to be carried out by the five turbulent little Central American republics, which lie close together between Mexico and the Isthmus of Panama. These States constituted the Central American Federation from 1823, just after the Spanish rule had been thrown off, until 1839, when they flew into fragments, and set up, each for itself, an independent government.

One or two attempts have been made since then to re-unite these little republics. The last was that of Barrios, who was for many years Dictator of Guatemala, and who lost his life in the attempt. But now a renewed effort, peaceable in its nature, has been made, and a treaty has already been accepted, forming a more intimate tie between these republics than has existed since 1839.

This treaty provides that "perpetual peace shall exist between the republics; that all differences shall be arranged; and that, in the event of this proving impossible, such differences shall be submitted to arbitration."

The example of greater and more enlightened nations has thus had a good influence upon these little, jealous, and hitherto quarrelsome States, which have been from time to time domineered over by military dictators, and can only take rank, at best, as semi-civilized communities.

The five States, ranged along the coast of the Pacific and the Carribean Sea, from north to south, are Guatemala, Honduras, Salvador, Nicaragua, and Costa Rica.

All are nominally republican and their governments are modelled to some extent upon that of the United States. Each has a president and a legislative body of one or two chambers.

Of the five republics, Guatemala is the largest and the most thriving, its area nearly fifty thousand square miles. Next in population is Salvador, with six hundred and thirty thousand, though its area is much the smallest of all.

These little States have had "history" in abundance. They have often been afflicted with civil wars, and have also been often aroused, by jealousies, to conflicts with each other. They have been too prone to imitate, in these respects, their larger neighbor, Mexico.

It may be that now that they see the far greater blessings of concord and mutual co-operation, a brighter era is in store for them. They are so nearly our own neighbors, and they have so many industrial interests in common with us, that our cordial good wishes will attend their effort to put an end to the period of strife, and to dwell together in amity.

In order to attain this end, it is altogether probable that the five republics will soon adopt the federative form, leaving each one still independent in dealing with its own affairs, and establishing a common executive and congress for purposes of mutual defence and well-being. Such a result will certainly tend to ensure greater liberty and prosperity to each and all of them. —Youth's Companion.

That Rarest of Combinations.

True delicacy of flavor with true efficacy of action, has been attained in the famous California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs. Its pleasant taste and beneficial effects have rendered it immensely popular. Large bottles for sale by Thieme and Gross.

Sixty years ago there were 600 miles of railroad in Florida. To-day there are said to be about 2,000.

Delicate Children, Nursing

Mothers, overworked men and for all diseases where the tissues are wasting away from the inability to digest food, or from overwork; should take Scott's emulsion of pure cod liver oil with Hypophosphites. "I used the emulsion on a lady who was delicate. It put her in such good health and flesh, that I must say it is the best emulsion."—L. P. Waddell, M. D., Hugh's Mills S. C.

I have been for several years a sufferer from hay fever and severe head colds, and have tried other remedies in hope of getting relief but have found none that can compare with Ely's Cream Balm. I would not be without it for any consideration. It is simply wonderful in its effect upon the nasal organs. S. A. Burtt, Wilmington, N. C.

I can cheerfully recommend Ely's Cream Balm to the suffering public for hay fever and stoppage of the air passages. I have tried it and find it gives immediate relief.—J. E. Rector, 209 Rock Street, Little Rock, Ark.

Less Gospel and More Hoe.

"If there ain't a change in the religious world pretty soon, I'm going to throw down the Gospel and take up the grubbing hoe," remarked an old man yesterday. "I have rid a circuit of forty odd years, and I'm treated worse now than when I first began."

"What is your cause of complaint, parson?" asked a bystander.

"My recent cause is one what takes all others," answered the circuit rider, wiping a drop of water from the end of his peaked nose with the sleeve of his brown jeans coat. "I have preached a good deal here in Little Rock, and until recently it had allers been my belief that if a man could pull through here, he could pull through anywhere. But I was blind wrong. Yesterday I went in the Gum Lick district, where I had an appointment to preach in the schoolhouse. When I got there I found old man Wiggles, a hardshell Baptist, had got in ahead of me. I went in without any ill-feeling, intending to wait until he got through, when I would muster my congregation and take the field. After a while he got through preaching, and announced that sacrament would be taken when the boy got back from the still house. 'My congregation uses whisky instead of wine,' he went on, 'and Arkansaw corn bread instead of your wheat fixens.' Just then the boy arrived and the old man took the cob stopper from the black chunk bottle and began to pour out the whisky. Now if there is anything that strikes me natural it is whisky, and thinking I could preach better after being warmed up a little, I went up to the table and reached out for the bottle, when the old man looked at me and said:

"'Ain't you a Methodist?'

"'Yes, sir.'

"'Don't you know that we don't allow the Methodists to commune with us? Do you take this place for a free lunch counter, eh? No, sir; if you are not a customer of the Lord you cannot eat and drink here.'

"'I've got a right to the table,' I said, 'and I'll help myself.'

"'Tech that bottle and I'll hit you.'

"I grabbed the bottle, and the old man struck me with a pone of corn bread and knocked me down. Then somebody kicked me, and all hands drug me out."

"You got into a nest of close communionists, did you?" asked the bystanders.

"Rather like it. Why, them fellers would snatch a piece of bread from Jacob and tear the bosom outer Abraham's shirt. No, sir; until there is more freedom in church I sha'n't renew my connections. Where can a fellow get a two-pound hoe?"—Little Rock Gazette.

It Won't Bake Bread.—In other words, Hood's Sarsaparilla will not do impossibilities. Its proprietors tell plainly what it has done, submit proofs from sources of unquestioned reliability, and ask you frankly if you are suffering from any disease or affection caused or promoted by impure blood or low state of the system, to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. The experience of others is sufficient assurance that you will not be disappointed in the result.

Advice to Mothers.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferers at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub wakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

FITS. All fits stopped free by Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. No fits after first day's use. Marvelous cures. Treatise and $2.00 trial bottle free to Fit cases. Send to Dr. Kline, 931 Arch St., Phila. Pa.

The treatment of many thousands of cases of those chronic weaknesses and distressing ailments peculiar to females, at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., has afforded a vast experience in nicely adapting and thoroughly testing remedies for the cure of woman's peculiar maladies.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the outgrowth, or result, of this great and valuable experience. Thousands of testimonials, received from patients and from physicians who have tested it in the more aggravated and obstinate cases which had baffled their skill, prove it to be the most wonderful remedy ever devised for the relief and cure of suffering women. It is not recommended as a "cure-all," but as a most perfect specific for woman's peculiar ailments.

As a powerful, invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system, and to the womb and its appendages in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine, "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, exhaustion, prostration, hysteria, spasms and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the womb. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a legitimate medicine, carefully compounded by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate organization. It is purely vegetable in its composition and perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system. For morning sickness, or nausea, from whatever cause arising, weak stomach, indigestion, dyspepsia and kindred symptoms, its use, in small doses, will prove very beneficial.

"Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of leucorrhea, excessive flowing, painful menstruation, unnatural suppressions, prolapsus, or falling of the womb, weak back, "female weakness," anteversion, retroversion, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration of the womb, inflammation, pain and tenderness in ovaries, accompanied with "internal heat."

As a regulator and promoter of functional action, at that critical period of change from girlhood to womanhood, "Favorite Prescription" is a perfectly safe remedial agent, and can produce only good results. It is equally efficacious and valuable in its effects when taken for those disorders and derangements incident to that later and most critical period, known as "The Change of Life."

"Favorite Prescription," when taken in connection with the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and small laxative doses of Dr. Pierce's Purgative Pellets (Little Liver Pills), cures Liver, Kidney and Bladder diseases. Their combined use also removes blood taints, and abolishes cancerous and scrofulous humors from the system.

"Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee, from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper and faithfully carried out for many years.

Large bottles (100 doses) $1.00, or six bottles for $5.00.

FRUIT HOUSE PRICES FOR '87

Quite a change has taken place in a great many goods the last sixty days, the tendency being in most cases upwards. This is the case, especially in Coffee and Dried Fruits, Sugars, Teas, Syrups, Spices and Tobaccos, have not advanced, but from indications they will. It will pay our customers to purchase liberally.

Sugars—White and Yellow.

Yellow C Sugar, 5½c. Standard A Sugar, 6½c. Granulated Sugar, 7c. Powdered Sugar, 7c. Cut Loaf Sugar, 7c.

NO ADVANCE ON TEAS,

Yet they will not likely remain at such low prices in the face of the large advance on Coffee. We continue to maintain our prestige in the Tea trade. Our trade has grown immensely in that line. People have no longer to send off to purchase their Teas. In order to save money we keep up the plan of buying in large lots of the importers and re-selling direct to our customers at a small profit, thereby saving to our customers the intermediate profits of jobber and wholesale dealer —which is not less than 10 to 20c.

Good, 15c per pound; choice, 30c; best, 50c. Imperial tea—Green, good, 30c; best, 50c. Gunpowder tea, 30c; best, 50c. Oolong or Black tea, 20c, 30c; best, 50c; Japan tea, 20c, 30c; best, 50c. Above prices on teas are the lowest on record and the best teas are of the highest quality—no better anywhere—the other grades are good, sweet, drawing teas and will please the most fastidious tea drinkers. Just give them a trial and satisfy yourself,

Coffee—Rio, Java and Roasted.

Best Rio coffee, 20c, per pound; best roasted Rio, 24c per pound; German coffee, 25c per pound; Housekeepers' Choice, 25c per pound; Dannemiller's, 26c. per cent.

Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Prunes, Raisins, Currents, &c., &c.

Turkish prunes, 5c; figs, per pound, 10c; peeled peaches, 20c; dried cherries, 18; unpeeled peaches, 8c; dried raspberries, 30c; dried apples, 6c; dried blackberries, 15c.

Leghorn Citron, 25c; orange and lemon peel, 15c; Valencia raisins, 8c; best layer raisins, 12½c; Zantee currants, 8c; shelled almonds, 30c; seedless raisins, 10c,

Candies—Stick, Mixed and Bon Bons,

Pure stick candy, 10c; pure mixed candy, 10c; fancy toy candy, 20c, toy candies, 20c; Brazil nuts, 10c quart; almond nuts, 15c quart; mixed nuts, 15c quart; walnuts and filberts, 12½c quart.

Syrups---Maple and Sugar Syrups and New Orleans Molasses.

Pure Maple syrup, 70c a gallon; golden drips, 40c; Sorghum, 40c; New Orleans molasses, 25c; best, 40c. The sorghum is splendid and 10c lower than we ever sold it before.

WINES AND LIQUORS FOR MEDICAL PURPOSES.

Old 76, $2.50 per gallon; two years old, $1.75; one year old, $1.40 per gallon; new whisky, $1 and $1.25 per gallon; Port and Sherry wine, $1.25 per gallon; California wine, $1.25 per gallon; wines in bottles, 40c.

Machine Oils, Fish Oil, Lard Oil and Neatsfoot Oil, and Headlight Oil and Castor Oil,

Fish oil, per gallon, 70c; Neatsfoot oil, 80c per gallon; Lard oil, 70c per gallon; Machine oil, dark, 20c per gallon; Golden, 30c per gallon; Castor oil, $1.75 per gallon; Headlight oil, 12c per gallon.

Tobaccos and Cigars, Plug Tobacco, Smoking Tobacco and Fine Cut.

THE CITY NEWS.

The public parks are watered daily.

Jesse Darrow left for Rome City this morning.

Mr. L. M. Jones is going to Colorado for his health.

Mr. Bayless Swift is enjoying a two weeks' vacation.

Henry Clay, of Fort Wayne, has just been granted a pension.

Dr. Charley Stemen will return from Kansas City this week.

It is reported that counterfeit postage stamps are in circulation.

Dr. H. A. Read went to Pierceton this morning on professional business.

H. L. and Geo. S. Evans, of Fort Wayne, were at Indianapolis yesterday.

Officer John O'Connell, one of the finest, was detained from duty by illness last night.

Miss Katie Brown, of West Berry street, is entertaining her friend, Miss Mary Godown.

Mayor Stuart, of Lafayette, gives notice that he will hereafter suppress houses of ill-fame.

Supt. George F. Felts will conduct a special examination of teachers next Saturday afternoon.

Mail Carrier Menach will not resume his duties for a week or so. He overworked himself and must rest.

Louis Schmidt, prescriptionist at Mr. R. B. Noll's Broadway drug store, is enjoying his vacation at Petoskey.

Charles J. Schnabel, formerly of this city, is visiting his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Becker, of Washington street.

The "Mets" and the Columbia City nine will initiate the new base ball diamond at the fair grounds to-morrow afternoon.

Wm. Dunn, a resident of this city in 1878, died Sunday at New York. He is a nephew of Wm. Dunn, of the Boston dry goods store.

F. C. Shafer, a short-hand writer, formerly secretary to Supt. G. W. Stevens, of the Wabash, left Lafayette without paying a board bill.

Mrs. Mary Ann Miller, mother-in-law of Joseph N. Stein, died at 6:45 last evening, at the residence of her son, Charles Miller, of 59 Charles street.

Elder E. G. Anderson will fill the pulpit of the Baptist church next Sunday. Efforts are being made to secure the services of Rev. Dickinson, of La-Grange, to preach during the absence of Rev. B. A. Northrop.

Mr. L. B. Brotherman, the genial foreman of the Nickel Plate yards, last night celebrated the thirty-fifth anniversary of his birth, at his home, on Riverside avenue. A splendid supper was served and a very enjoyable time was had.

The gas well at Hartford City is not the attraction that draws George Thein, the popular Calhoun street barber, to that city so often of late. There are a number of interesting femenine beauties in that little city, and George is not such an incorrigible bachelor as to be proof against their charms.

Two sons of Silas Goodrich, aged seven and ten respectively, living eight miles this side of Columbia City, engaged in filling cartridges from a flask filled with powder. A lighted match fell into the flask, caused an explosion, and both boys were very badly burned. One will die and the other lose his eyesight.

George D. Ohneck, the deputy revenue collector, has advertised thirty-five and a half gallons of two-year-old Bourbon whisky, which was seized by him for a violation of the internal revenue laws, to be sold on the 8th of August. Whisky is a safe article to sell at public auction and the chances are it won't sell at much of a sacrifice.

The snug dwelling house of Ludwig Jacobs, in Nebraska, caught fire yesterday afternoon, and the roof and part of the upper story was burned off. Mrs. Jacobs claimed to have had $300 under the bedtick up stairs and begged some one to rescue the boodle. The firemen went up but could only find $15. It is supposed the rest of the money was lost in the flames. The residence was insured for $500 in one of the agencies represented by Glutting & Bauer.

It was Dr. J. C. Haller, a prominent physician of Van Wert, who was so badly beaten Saturday night by Lat. Dull, a farmer living ten miles south, and it is very doubtful if he will recover. The cause of the trouble is that Mrs. Dull died during the spring, while a patient of the doctor, and Dull, whose mind is thought to be unbalanced by his loss, imagines it was for want of proper care. After beating Dr. Haller over the head with a club, Dull escaped to the woods and has not been seen since.

A stranger giving his name as James Watson, an old man fifty-three years of age, met with what is likely to prove a fatal accident at Lafayette yesterday morning. He was walking along the Wabash track, near Union street, when the east-bound passenger, due there at 9.12, came dashing along. Watson attempted to board the front end of the mail car, but missed his hold and was thrown with terrible force to the ground. In the fall his head was struck by a journal on the trucks, crushing one side in and knocking him senseless.

Save your tickets! All three of the grand capital prizes will be drawn September 1, in case numbers 1,104, 1,930 and 907 are not presented before that time. Messrs. Sam, Pete & Max are determined that somebody shall secure these grand presents. The daily presentation of valuable gifts, the popular scheme of the day, and going the year round. No dull times at the Star, business booming, stock immense, prices way down. 3-dd&w-tf.

The city council will meet to-night.

There was no police court this morning.

John LeGraw is very ill with rheumatism.

The child of Engineer Titus continues very ill.

The Salvation Army barracks are deserted.

Miss Della Ross has returned from a visit in the east.

Mr. C. W. Orr has returned from Kennebunkport, Me.

The delinquent tax collector will soon be on the war path.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Dwenger has returned from Mackinaw.

Robert Cunningham, of the Star Iron Tower company, is at Peoria.

Mrs. E. S. Philley left for Rome City this morning to attend the assembly.

Miss Ella Nelligan, of 33 West Lewis street, has considerably improved in health.

Mrs. John C. McCulloch, of 37 Madison street, has gone to Ishpeming, Mich., to visit relatives.

Engineer Frank Murphy, of the Nickel Plate, is at Cleveland, where his mother is dangerously ill.

Anton Arens was to-day bound over in the sum of $500 for murderous assault on his step-son, Neubauer. Arens gave bail.

The Grand Rapids train took a number of people to Rome City, this morning, to attend the Assembly. No regular excursion was run however.

Miss Lottie Green, of 179 Jackson street, left last evening for Minneapolis, Minn. While there she will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Stirling.

John Lehr made three unsuccessful attempts to force a tax levy in the Seventh ward yesterday. He was ejected and will file affidavits against the offenders.

A horse attached to a spring wagon fell on Calhoun street this morning and broke a shaft of the vehicle. Quite a crowd assembled to advise the lady who owned the outfit.

Dr. George W. Long holds the ribbons over one of the handsomest and best team of mares in the state. If any one goes by the doctor on the road they will have to do it flying.

The death of John Grosh occurred at his late residence this morning at 2 o'clock. The funeral will take place from St. Peters church on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock.

Charles Winslow, a colored razor operator from Columbia street, attempted to carve William E. Ford last night and was arrested this morning. Justice Ryan will dipose of this African warfare.

Editor James Mitchell filed an affidavit in Ryan's court last evening, charging Clerk Davis, of the Sam. Pete and Max clothing house, with assault. This morning Mr. Mitchell dismissed the suit.

Last Sunday, at Detroit, Rev. Ferdinand Tressolt, son of Ex-councilman Christian Tressolt, of this city, was ordained to preach the gospel and has accepted the pastorate of a Lutheran church at that city.

J. L. Kemp, a Pittsburg brakeman, sprained an ankle at Van Wert and was brought to this city under care of Dr. Stemen. A passenger named White, on the same train, had an arm crushed. He lives at Van Wert.

Receiver McNulta is handling the Wabash proper with an ability which calls forth favorable comment on the part of the courts and railroad men. He expects to be able to pay another coupon upon the bonds secured by the underlying mortgage on Sept. 1.

John M. Hengesteler, living at the corner of Hanna and Pontiac streets, is lying very low with sickness and his family is in destitute circumstances. The attention of benevolent citizens is called to this case, as Mr. Hengesteler has been unable to work for a long time.

The following building permits have been granted: to Charles Kradop, to erect an office on lot 175 Hannas addition, to cost $30; to Fred Drage, to erect two one story frame houses on lot 12, Colerick's addition, to cost $700 each; to F. Reitze, to erect a two story frame house on lot 203, Rockhill's addition, to cost $1,400.

The secretary of state yesterday received articles of consolidation of the Dayton and Ironton and the Dayton and Chicago railroad companies, whose lines extend from Dayton to Fort Wayne, and the new link is to be known as the Dayton, Fort Wayne and Chicago. They are now narrow guage, but will be made standard.

Herman Krohne, the gunsmith, received intelligence from Hanover, Germany, yesterday, that his bachelor uncle died, leaving an estate valued at about $60,000. His end came suddenly and he made no will, hence his property will be divided among his legal heirs by the courts. Mr. Krohne forwarded proofs of his identity at once to secure his share of the fortune.

Joseph Griffin, a prominent contractor of Springfield, Ohio, arrived here at noon and took charge of the remains of his brother, Henry Griffin, whose sudden death at Pete Koehlinger's boarding house was noted yesterday. Dr. J. M. Dinnen made an examination of the body this morning and pronounced that death was from heart disease. The remains of the dead stone mason were prepared for shipment to Springfield by Franke & Wellman.

Last Saturday east bound passenger train No. 4, on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad, due at Mansfield at 1:07 p. m., was telescoped by a freight train at Lawrence, a small station sixty miles east of that city, between Orrville and Massillon. Particulars are that the last coach of the passenger train was thrown from the track and broken into splinters. Quite a number of passengers were in the coach. It is said that four passengers were seriously injured and as many more slightly bruised. All trains were delayed five hours.

NEVER

Such an Opportunity as Now to Obtain the Very Best Values for Little Money.

No use Buying trash when such splendid values are going so cheap. We must, will and shall close out as many goods prior to our removal, October 1, as can be done, if letting down the prices to low ebb counts.

See here! Look at the figures! Compare the reductions!

Dr. Traxler's remains were taken to the depot yesterday in an ordinary express wagon and then shipped to Pennsylvania. It is said the doctor's first wife is still alive and a resident of Allentown. The friends of the lady who has passed as his wife in this city insist that the doctor married her at Decatur, Ind., and that twice she has visited with him at his old home in Pennsylvania. The funeral arrangements of the doctor in this city were not in keeping with the means he left to provide for them.

WILLIAM DUCK

Discovers an Airy Stranger in His Little Cottage on Montgomery Street.

William Duck is a railroad man and he resides at No. 76 Montgomery street. He got in on his run about 3 o'clock this morning and at once started home. With his night key he entered the house and proceeded to his wife's bordoir. He expected to see her face wreathed in expectant smiles and her lips fixed to welcome him with a kiss, but things did not pan out as his fancy painted them.

William's eye feasted itself on a stranger in scanty attire. There was considerable stir and quicker than a flash the apparition-like intruder fled through the window into the street and over the hills.

Mr. Duck has a suit of clothes to dispose of and some other articles of wearing apparel that he cannot lay legal claim to.

Of course, he suspicioned who his visitor was and filed an affidavit against him in Justice Ryan's court. He later interviewed the suspected gentleman, who is a tailor, and withdrew the case.

It is not known that Mrs. Duck figured in the reconciliation, but it is presumed she did, bless her.

ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY KENNEY, of Philadelphia, recently sent to the Grand Jury an indictment in the following words: "That Louisa Ebriline, on June 22, 1886, and on each and every day thence continually until the day of the finding of this indictment, was and is a common eavesdropper, and on each and all of said days and times did listen about the houses and, under the windows and eaves of the houses of the citizens and their dwellings, bearing tattle and repeating the same in the hearing of other persons, to the common nuisance of the citizens of the Commonwealth and against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania." The offense set out in the indictment is the common-law one of eavesdropping, and there is no known record of such an indictment ever having been prepared in Philadelphia. The Grand Jury found the bill true.
